Queen Crowning Opens WT Homecoming

Beauty and western brawn will highlight the 1964 West Texas State University Homecoming this weekend, Oct 16-17.

Beauty will reign on the WT campus beginning today, Thursday, when one of five beautiful candidates will be crowned Homecoming Queen.

Vying for the title are Ina Messenger of Dimmitt, Emma Kay Holland of Groom, Lee Ruth Wiggins of Canyon, Karen Brewster of Canyon and Sharon Corica of Dimmitt.

Coronation ceremonies will be held at 11 a.m. today in the WT field house during a Homecoming assembly.

One of the five beauties will reign during various homecoming activities which officially begin Friday with dances, dinners, class reunions, and a football game.

The queen will also have a special position in the Homecoming Parade Saturday beginning at 3:30 p.m. Theme for this year's parade will be "Texas Myths and Legends".

The parade route was altered this year, according to parade chairman Paige Carruth, and will begin at the west end of Fourth Avenue and travel eastward down Fourth to 24th Street.

Thirteen floats, four riding clubs and six bands will be featured in the parade.

Riding clubs include the Randall County Sheriff's Posse, Will Rogers Range Riders of Amarillo, Plainview riding club and the Hereford riding club.

Bands marching in the parade will be the Canyon High School band, Hale Center band, Tahoka band, the Hereford band, the Amarillo Air Force Band and the West Texas State University Buff Band.

The Sam Houston Rifle Drill Team will appear in the parade along with the WTSU cheerleaders, the victory bell, the Homecoming Queen and her attendants and eight cars transporting the invited dignitaries included in President James P. Cornette's party.

Randall County Sheriff L. S. 'Slim' Johnston will serve as parade marshall and will lead the parade.

Three judges will select the winning floats and the winning dorm decorations.

Floats will be on display around Buffalo Bowl during the evening football game Saturday night when WT meets Memphis State.

Phoenix Club members will be treated Friday night in the first official activities for the two-day events. The annual dinner for club members will begin at 7 p.m. in the East Dining Hall on the WT campus.

Following the dinner at 9 p.m. the third annual alumni dance will be held in the Amarillo Country Club.

WT students and invited guests will attend a dance in the Student Union Building Friday night from 7:30-11 p.m. The dance will be a western stomp, carrying out the theme of the two days prior to homecoming activities.

"Western Days" will be the theme Thursday and Friday on campus as students don western-style togs.

A bonfire and pep rally will be held on the north side of the campus immediately following the dance Friday.

Registration for alumni and guests of the school will begin at 9 a.m. in the union building on campus.

Various teas and coffees will be held from 10 a.m. to noon.

A special luncheon for the honor class of 1939 will be held in the inner room of the union cafeteria. The Class of 1939 will celebrate its Silver Anniversary Saturday.

From 1-2 p.m. Saturday class reunions will be held in buildings on campus. The Ex-Student Association business meeting will begin at 2 p.m. in the Fine Arts Theatre followed by the annual parade at 3:30 p.m.

The Homecoming barbecue will begin at 4:30 p.m. Saturday in front of the union cafeteria. Jetton of Fort Worth will cater the meal.

The Buffs will face Memphis State at 7:30 p.m. in Buffalo Bowl and a Homecoming dance will begin at 10 p.m. in the SUB. The dance will end at 1 a.m.

Dr. Jack Walker is chairman of the Homecoming committee, which has planned all the activities for the two-day period.

Boone McClure has been chairman of the barbecue with Dr. Ruth Lowes serving as registration chairman. Larry Elms has worked as assembly program chairman and Vaughn Vandergriff has served as club and class reunions chairman. Zell SoRelle planned all the dances for the Homecoming weekend.

Stroup Awarded $30,000 In Unusual Damage Case

Good Name Hurt Plantiff Declares

Gaylord Stroup was awarded $30,000 by a jury here this week in one of the strangest damage suits on record in Randall County.

Stroup won a default judgment against W. R. Moore, Wayside, alleging that his good name had been injured by Moore's declaration that "Gaylord has been stealing some of my cattle."

Stroup, 19 years old, Canyon, was indicted by a Swisher County grand jury Sept. 3 on charges of theft in connection with the alleged theft of 155 head of cattle from Moore July 26.

Stroup also was indicted by a Swisher County grand jury on charges of defrauding by worthless check. The check from which the indictment grew is alleged to have been for $384.09 and given to Hutto Motor Sales of Tulia for car repairs. It is alleged to have been drawn on Canyon First National Bank.

Also indicted in Swisher County in connection with alleged cow theft is James M. Montgomery, 29, Canyon.

Bond for Stroup was set at $1500 on each of the two counts and at $2500 for Montgomery on the single count.

A default judgment was handed down by Judge Gene Jordan in 47th District Court here August 5 after Moore failed to file an answering petition with the district clerk or to make an appearance in court.

A district court jury Monday awarded Stroup $10,000 more than he asked in his petition. The jury awarded Stroup $10,000 actual damages and $20,000 exemplary damages.

Stroup had asked $10,000 actual damages and only $10,000 exemplary damages.

The suit was filed June 5, 1964, with the district clerk. Harold Sanderson of Amarillo is Stroup's attorney.

According to records here, papers in connection with the suit were served on Moore at 10:30 o'clock the morning of June 18.

No answering petition by Moore was on record with the Randall County district clerk as of Tuesday morning of this week.

Moore, 74 years old, said he remembers being served with the papers but he thought the suit against him had been dropped.

"I didn't know they were bringing up a trial," Moore declared. He said he heard Monday night from a neighbor that a jury had assessed $30,000 against him in favor of Stroup.

Stroup's petition alleges that in May of this year at Tulia "the defendant, W. R. Moore, maliciously intending to injure

WT Beauty Wins Second In Contest

Ruth Ann Guthrie, West Texas State University coed, placed second in the American Royal Livestock Exposition Queen contest last week.

Miss Guthrie, a sophomore beauty, competed against girls representing 20 university and colleges of the Mid-West.

"I was surprised, but thrilled," Ruth Ann said this week.

Mimi Frink of Lawrence, Kansas was named Queen of the American Royal Exposition. Ruth Ann and Cathy Stinzel of Missouri University were named first and second princesses.

Miss Guthrie traveled to Kansas City, where the contest was held, with her mother Mrs. Paul Guthrie of Pampa. They were guests of the exposition

RUTH ANN GUTHRIE

One of these beauties will be crowned Homecoming Queen at West Texas State University today during a Homecoming Assembly at 11a.m. Candidates include Ina Messenger, Dimmitt sophomore, Karen Brewster, Canyon junior, Lee Ruth Wiggins, Canyon junior, Emma Kay Holland, Groom senior, and Sharon Corica, Dimmitt junior.

Auditor Says Outside Interests Are Common

County Auditor E. T. Cummings this week answered criticism of his not always being readily available in his court house office by inferring that many other county officials have outside interests.

In a typewritten statement submitted to commissioners court Monday, Cummings said that, with the exception of the county treasurer and district clerk, all Randall County officials have business or agricultural interests which demand part of their time and attention.

Cummings operates a book store and an accounting firm.

"There are only two county officials who are required to have any special qualifications in education or experience," said the Cummings statement. "They are the criminal district attorney and the auditor." Cummings said the district attorney draws $7,875 annually.

County Judge Wayland Angel said that there is no legal necessity to hire a certified public accountant to keep the county's books.

The county auditor is appointed by the district judge. His salary also is fixed by the district judge.

Cummings originally was hired by the late Judge Henry S. Bishop. His services have since been retained by Judge Gene Jordan.

The auditor's salary here is $6,562.50 a year. His secretary's salary is $3,652 a year. The auditor's salary is the same as that of the county tax assessor-collector.

County commissioners complained recently to Judge Jordan that the auditor's office is costing the county too much.

Judge Jordan said he believes he would be able to get the county's books kept for less but doubts he would be able to hire a CPA for less than Cummings draws.

Following is the text of the Cummings statement, except for a detailed chart showing salaries drawn by various county officials and employes.

"Due to the recent publicity regarding the conference between the Randall County Commissioners Court and District Judge E. E. Jordan regarding the County Auditor's office, I wish to present the following information to the interested citizens and taxpayers of the county.

"The Randall County Commissioners Court is responsible for setting the salaries of all county officials except the county auditor. They are limited in setting salaries by state law in general and by one specific law which applies only to Randall County. The state law provides a maximum salary of $8,500 per year for all county officials in a county with the population and tax valuation of Randall County. A separate law applied to the criminal district attorney, since it is stated in the law creating this office that a maximum salary of $8,000 per year should be paid to the criminal district attorney. The law also provides that the district judge may set the salary of the county auditor at an amount not to exceed that paid the county tax assessor-collector.

"There is no provision in the law stating that any county official is required to keep up with his time and report to an office or place of work for any particular number of hours. This applies to all county officials. Deputies and assistants work according to a schedule

Boy Scout Fund Drive Set Monday

Kickoff luncheon for the Canyon Boy Scout fund raising drive will be Monday at noon in the American Legion Hall.

All majors, captains and workers will meet for the noon meal, and prospective cards will be handed out at that time, according to drive chairman Gene McGlasson.

Cards and money collected will be turned in Thursday, Oct. 22, to the captains. McGlasson and the majors will receive the cards Friday and a complete tally of money received will begin Friday afternoon.

OpenHouse Set At Credit Union

Members of the Canyon Credit Union will host an open house today and tomorrow, Thursday and Friday, at the union office 400 15th Street.

Coffee and door prizes will be given away from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. today, and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, Oct. 16.

Greeting visitors during the two-day open house will be board of directors, supervisory committeemen, credit committeemen and Mrs. Martha Hilton, office manager.

Credit Union directors include J. Keith Jones, president; Martha Hilton, treasurer; Dorothy Hawkins, secretary; Clifford Abbott, Russell Altmiller, Roy Cheatham, Levi Cole, George Dowlen and T. S. Stevenson, Sr., all members.

Supervisory committeemen are Jess L. Rhodes, chairman; Elton E. Cox, secretary, and Russell Altmiller, board advisor.

Credit committeemen include T. S. Stevenson Sr., chairman, Dick Dawdy, vice chairman and Riley Troth, secretary.

The credit union in Canyon received a state charter May 20 of this year. They presently have 115 members in the local organization.

The Canyon business was the first community credit union to be granted a state charter in Texas, according to Mrs. Hilton, office manager.

Directors, committee members of the credit union serve without pay during their term of office. Each member of the credit union has one vote in the business affairs of the business, regardless of the number of shares he may own.

The Canyon credit union is open to residents of Randall County plus persons residing in the Dawn and Happy communities.

Persons residing inside the city limits of Amarillo are excluded from the local charter.

The open house celebration is open to the public and everyone is invited, according to board members.

C of C Lists Forum Dates

A schedule of meeting times and places for the Community Progress Forum, to be held Oct. 27-28, was issued this week by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

Chairmen for the eight groups, which will meet during the two-day period, met recently to schedule meeting times.

The forum will give people of the community an opportunity to express their ideas on the needs of the city and area.

The meetings will be held at various times throughout the two days and suggestions offered will be used by the Chamber to plan next year's programs and projects.

Chamber officials have pointed out that every citizen is invited to attend a group session of his choice. All sessions will be similar and if there is a time

Absentee Voting Underway

Absentee voting began in Randall County Wednesday for the general election, which will be held Nov. 3.

Voters of Randall County and Texas will vote on three proposed amendments to the state constitution.

County voters will also vote on a proposed County airport bond election.

County Clerk T. H. Lair said absentee voting may be done at his office in the county courthouse or at the courthouse annex at 3608 Bowie in South Amarillo.

Absentee voting ends Friday, Oct. 30. Absentees may not be mailed in the county. Neither may they be returned from a post office in the county and votes remain valid, according to Lair.

MIKE GOLDWATER

Goldwater's Son Speaks Here Friday

Mike Goldwater, son of Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, will be in Canyon Friday afternoon, Oct. 16.

The younger son of the Republican Senator will speak in Connor Park at 3:15 p.m., according to Rhett Plank, a Young Texan for Goldwater.

Mike will arrive at Tradewind Airport at 2:15 p.m. Friday for the first of five stops during the day.

Before traveling to Canyon, the Goldwater son will attend a coffee for Bob Price, GOP candidate for Congressman from the 18th District, in Amarillo.

Mike will lead a caravan of Young Republicans and Young Texans for Goldwater to Canyon, where he will speak for about 20 minutes.

Canyon school children wishing to attend the rally in the park will be excused from classes early, Superintendent Huelyn Laycock said.

Mike Goldwater will continue his rally-speaking tour to Tulia and Plainview, with brief stops in both towns. He will attend a rally Friday night at Texas Tech in Lubbock and leave Saturday morning for Dallas.

Mike will meet his older

CHS Homecoming Plans Underway For Oct. 23

Crowning of a Homecoming Queen, a chuckwagon dinner and a thrilling football clash will highlight the 1964 Canyon High School Homecoming Oct. 23.

Homecoming activities will get underway Friday, Oct. 23 at the high school with registration beginning at noon Friday.

A Homecoming assembly will begin at 2:30 p.m. Friday to honor the football team, queen candidates, alumni and guests,

A car decoration contest will also be held Friday with the winner towing the victory bell to the ball game Friday night.

A chuckwagon supper, sponsored by the Canyon PTA, will be served from 5-8 p.m. in the high school cafeteria with a complete barbecue menu of meat, beans, onions, bread, dessert and coffee planned.

Bill Davis, president of the Parent Teachers Association, said tickets of $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children through the sixth grade, will be sold at the door or from various club members beginning Friday.

Parents have been asked to donate pies and cakes for dessert for the supper. The desserts should be in the high school cafeteria by 4 p.m. Friday.

Whole cakes and pies will be sold at the supper. Money will be used by the PTA for future projects.

Women who work in the cafeterias of the Canyon Public Schools will prepare and serve the meal. PTA members will be on duty to help keep the cafeteria cleared, Davis said.

A Homecoming Queen will be crowned in pre-game ceremonies Friday night prior to the Canyon Eagles-Hereford Whitefaces game in Buffalo Bowl.

The queen will be crowned by student body president Jody Sheets with the Canyon High School band forming a heart on the playing field.

Following the game students, alumni and parents will be guests at a dance in the high school cafeteria and commons.

Members of the PTA will serve dessert and coffee and soft drinks to those attending.

Candidates for Homecoming Queen will be named Monday with a runoff elections set for Tuesday at the high school.

Candidates will be presented during the special assembly Friday along with the coach, and special alumni visiting., said High School Principal Hobart McDonald said.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

We never see Ralph Yarborough without a sense of sorrow for the leader he might have been.

Senator Yarborough burst upon the state political scene at an opportune time. It was in the 1950s in the days of the veterans land scandal, ballot box stealing and hints of other corruption.

Yarborough was running for governor. Like many others, we thought he was unjustly maligned by his opponents. This outraged our sense of fair play and won him our sympathy.

He had a fine service career behind him, having served we believe, as a light colonel. He was a military governor in Japan under General Douglas McArthur.

In his state political campaigns Yarborough promised reform to a state twitching in the throes of corruption. People began to take notice. They noticed too that Yarborough kept running, in spite of defeats.

Then he was elected to serve out the unexpired term of Price Daniel, who quit the US Senate to defeat Yarborough for governor in 1956. He was re-elected in 1958 to the term he is currently serving.

We had applauded Yarborough's reform bid for governor and even his first race for the Senate. Two years of observing him in the Senate was enough. In Washington Ralph Yarborough was out of his depth.

Yarborough has made a poor appearance in the Senate. His ineptitude as a law maker and his lack of self control as an individual has painted a poor picture of Texas before the rest of the nation.

Senator Yarborough is given to venting his feelings wherever anger overtakes him. He threw his second tantrum in Amarillo in a matter of months last week.

The Senator had a temper fit in front of thousands of TV viewers of the Golden Spread last spring when he didn't like the way a Channel 10 newsman was questioning him.

The Senator's latest outburst came in the Amarillo Press Club where his supporters had scheduled a press conference for him.

The Senator refused the press an audience. This in spite of the fact that some newsmen had driven from out of town to visit with him.

Yarborough said he had to shave and get ready for a speech before some 300 supporters who had gathered for a dinner in his honor.

We asked him if he would be available for an interview following the speech. He at first agreed and then refused after one of his aides shook his head vigorously in the negative.

The Senator likewise declined an offer by this reporter to submit questions to him in a letter.

At the Press Club door we asked the Senator about a statement he was reported to have made here at Canyon last spring during the Democratic Primary campaign to the effect that business has not supported education.

The Senator turned on us in a rage. "I made no such statement," he declared. "I'm on the Senate Education Committee and a statement like that would be asinine."

Here is what the Senator said last spring as quoted from a speech at the Trail Motor Hotel in a story written by Miss Margo Williams of The Canyon News Staff:

"Big business does not support higher education. Chamber of Commerce (presumably the US Chamber of Commerce to which he had made prior reference) has fought the development of higher education. We must improve our schools, and the federal government is needed to do so," Yarborough said.

Last week the Senator said such a statement would be asinine. We agree with the Senator.

At Amarillo the Senator bad-mouthed the folks at Hereford. He complained that he was kept at the sugar beet plant so long that he did not get to ride in a parade in Hereford as he had been promised.

The Senator, however, was quick to claim a portion of the credit for getting the sugar beet mill erected at Hereford.

At Childress Thursday, Yarborough bad-mouthed the people of Amarillo. In essence he told the folks at Childress that although the people of Amarillo say they are against federal aid, they always beseige him for their share after he has been elected.

"Ralph Yarborough lost more votes for himself in five minutes in Amarillo than we could get for him in a year," one of the Senator's supporters who sat at the head table with him during the Amarillo banquet appearance was quoted as saying.

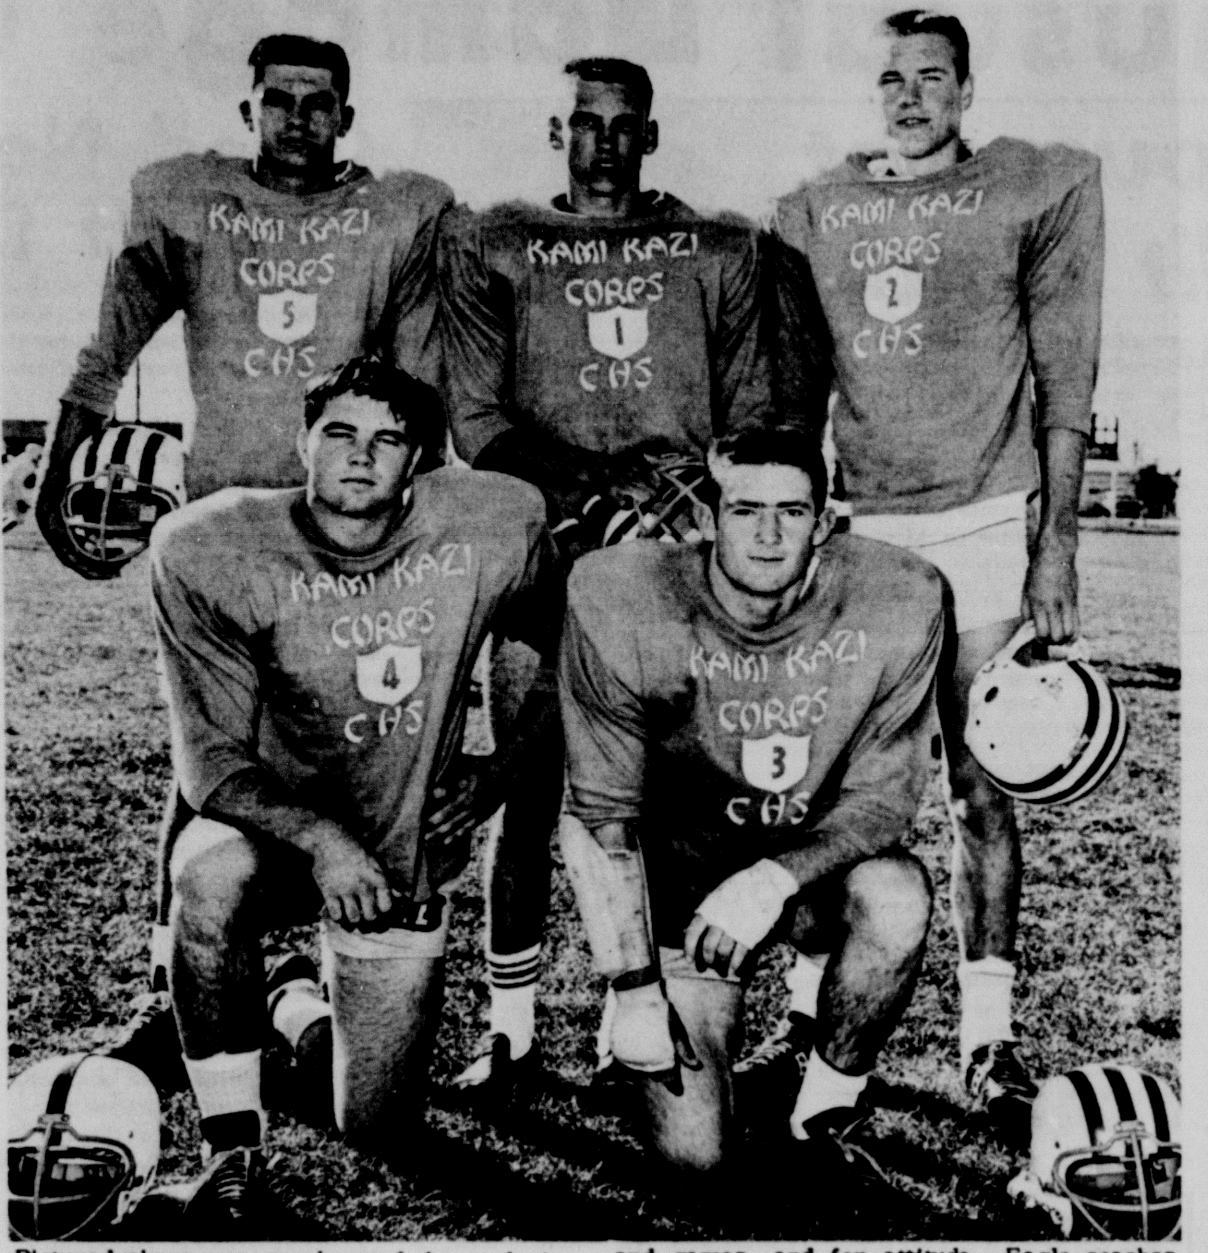
We sincerely feel sorry for Senator Yarborough. He lacks both the ability and the dignity of a US Senator. He went to the Senate under unusual circumstances and has been virtually ignored by men of stature on both sides of the aisle.

He has repeatedly been denied committee appointments to which his seniority should have entitled him. His voice is not heard in the councils of his own party.

As though in an effort to outdo himself in heaping shame and indignity on the Texans he purports to represent, he laid hands on Senator Strom Thurmond and started a brawl in the very halls of the Senate.

Yarborough is not even good at fighting. He was soundly threshed by the Carolina Senator.

Where Texans who supported him have looked for leadership and an effort toward rectification, they have seen inept statements, brawling in the Senate, involvement in federal boondogle spending such as at Crockett and at Wink (full details in September and October Reader's Digests), and a Senator unable to pull his oar on the Ship of State.



Pictured above are members of the exclusive Kami Kazi Corps, the harder-working members of the Canyon Eagle football squad. "Kami Kazi" means "Rulers of the Earth". Members are chosen for leadership, ability, how hard each player is willing to work in both drills and games, and for attitude. Eagle coaches choose members, who wear the purple jerseys in drills. Corps members pictured are, back row, left to right, Wayne Colling, Bill Miller and Dennis Haley, and front row, Joe Kerbel and Jody Sheets.

Cowboys Go Into Final Kids Incorporated Play

Canyon Kids Incorporated Cowboys tied one, lost one, in the past two weeks of football action.

Saturday was a tough one for the Cowboys as they lost to Avondale 22-0.

Single bright moment for the Cowboys came in the third quarter. Left halfback John Hoover, led by the blocking of right end Ricky Richardson, broke into the open and streaked 40 yards down the sidelines to the Avondale 45.

It was the longest run of the day for the Cowboys.

Hoover suffered a knee injury following the run and did not return to action. Donnie Minier, also received knee injuries and missed the remainer of the action.

Good performances were turned in by fullback Ricky Hales and quarterback Chuck Wright, but lack of blocking kept the offense from moving forward.

Top defensive performance of the season was displayed by the Cowboy defensive unit. Singled out for praise were interior linemen Richard Suttle and Sam Kerbel, linebacker Mike Trammel, defensive right end Hales and defensive halfback Desley Altmiller.

Speedster Altmiller was valuable in muffling long gains as he held opposing ballcarriers from long rushing yardage.

Cowboy coaches Richmond Hales and Jon Low expressed pride for the team despite the loss, praising team members for fighting all the way.

Five boys carrying out assignments best in the clash were Hales, Kerbel, Trammel, Richardson and Suttle.

In earlier grid action the Cowboys tied Wolflin 6-6 in scheduled play.

Scoring was done by Hoover who returned a second half kickoff 80 yards up the middle led by the blocking of David Low.

Donnie Minier was stopped short on a dive play for the extra points.

Carrying out playing assignments best were Hales, making several tackles before opposing backs could get out of the backfield; Hoover, leading ground gainer; Richardson, doing a good job as linebacker; and Low and Mickey Comer, doing best work on offense.

Cowboys now stand 2-1-2 in season totals with two games remaining on schedule. Next Saturday the Cowboys clash with Amarillo Belmar in a home game at Canyon Junior High School.

MEANDERING WITH MARGO

Life around the Williams abode was a tad bit gloomy Saturday.

The Cardinals lost, Oklahoma University was royally thrashed and I burned a roast beef.

I just couldn't win for trying.

Oh well, what's the old saying about a good loser? Afraid I'd never be considered a good loser. I get personally involved with these things and when a team of mine loses, I just can't stand it.

Prospects looked brighter by Tuesday, though, after the Cards took a decisive lead in the World Series. Hope they can maintain it and continue through the series as victors.

Have decided to yell for the Yanks, and perhaps the negative approach will produce a sure win for the St. Louis team.

Canyon Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a Community Progress Forum Oct. 27-28.

Now the words sound rather fancy, but really all it means is that everyone in town is invited to tell the Chamber just exactly what this town needs.

This is your opportunity to get some of those complaints off your chest and do some constructive thinking about what Canyon needs to grow and develop.

Some folks are chronic complainers, they never want to take any action but the motor-mouth type. This forum will let these motor-mouths mouth, but it will make them do some thinking also.

The Chamber wants to help the community, but the community must do some self-helping in order to improve. Meetings of various groups will be conducted throughout the day and evening both Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 27-28. If you fit into one category but can't make it to that meeting, just attend another one and voice your ideas there.

Everyone has been included, but if you don't get a letter inviting you to one of the sessions, come on anyway. They are going to be informal affairs and should prove to be quite enlightening for the Chamber officials.

Suggestions that are turned in will be tallied and a list made to see how many people want what things. Then the Chamber will put the ideas into next year's projects.

This is your way to help the city's growth...in a positive way.

We can all talk and complain. What we need are those of you who can talk and complain, but then can find a solution and begin work correcting those things you've been complaining about.

Check times and places on the meetings, and try to make one of them.

Eagles rest this week, but Happy faces the Bovina Mustangs in Happy. The Buffs also will take on a tough foe, Memphis State before a Homecoming crowd.

Homecoming parade begins at 3:30 p.m. Saturday followed immediately by the annual barbecue on the WT campus. Get your tickets now, only $1.25 per person. For a big meal like that, the cost is little.

Barbecue Planned By Boone McClure

Homecoming barbecue arrangements have been well tended to by Boone McClure, chairman for the Saturday feast.

Barbecue is scheduled on the calendar for 4:30 p.m. in front of the Student Union Cafeteria.

"The barbecue will begin as soon as the parade is over," said McClure, director of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

Walter Jetton of Ft. Worth will cater the barbecue.

Assisting with the barbecue will be the Chamber of Commerce Red Carpet Committee.

Tickets for the barbecue may be obtained from Bob Clark at the WTSU cafeteria, from Dr. Jack Walker of the speech department or at the museum from McClure. Tickets are $1.25 each.

"How much food is prepared depends a great deal on advance ticket sales," said McClure.

"If our advance ticket sales are not real good, we just prepare for about 3,000 people."

West Texas State students may obtain one barbecue ticket with their activity cards.

McClure has been barbecue chairman for many years now and well remembers the days when the barbecue was prepared by the faculty members. Early-day barbecues were free, with as many as 14 beeves barbecued at one time by hard-working faculty members before Homecoming guests arrived.

The chore soon got too large for the faculty and the barbecue became a catered affair.

Palo Duro MIL Has Christmas In October

Christmas came early last week at the meeting of the Palo Duro Mother-In-Law club at the home of Mrs. M. J. Noel.

Each member of the club brought a package and demonstrated how she had done the wrapping, thus each club member learned new ideas for wrapping.

Discussion and rewriting of the current by-laws and constitution was held during the afternoon.

The club will meet next with Mrs. Alice Black, at 12 noon Nov. 12. A luncheon and all day program will be held.

Attending the program were Mesdames George Barker, Leonard Winters, J. L. Hilgenfeld, Gladys Haines, Win Matsler, Olga Seales, M. J. Noel, Jeannette Robbins, Mae Johnson, Rae Walters, J. C. McClendon, J. P. Hammons, and Fred Marshall, and one guest, Cindy Woolery, Mrs. Haines' granddaughter of Amarillo.

Letter To The Editor

James A. Hale, D. D. S.
2705 Mockingbird Lane
Amarillo, Texas

Dear Mr. Martin:
Recently a W. E. Lockhart, M. D., of Alpine, Texas, exposed The John Birch Society in your newspaper. His supposed statements of "fact" cause me to ask some questions.

First, if The John Birch Society is secret, how did he become acquainted with their films and literature? Further, if it is secret, then why did the Senate Factfinding Subcommittee on Un-American Activities of the California Legislature state in its conclusions:

"Our investigation and study was requested by the Society, which had been publicly charged with being a secret, fascist, subversive, un-American, anti-Semitic organization. We have not found any of these accusations to be supported by the evidence."?

The above came after a two-year intensive investigation of The John Birch Society. Dr. Lockhart should correct the error if he has any evidence other than that of Gus Hall's directive of July, 1961, to the Communist Party.

The John Birch Society is chartered in Texas as an educational organization and does not endorse political parties or candidates. Being persuasive in its actions, it is proud to be not only monolithic but also authoritarian. Neither one is a dirty word. The Birch Society simply states: "This is our program - take it or leave it." If Dr. Lockhart belongs to a church, he is a member of an authoritarian, monolithic organization and he should expose it for "undemocratic actions" and not pick on just the JBS.

The guilt by association of Mr. Welch with Adolf Hitler is quite unfair. Nowhere in Birch publications can Dr. Lockhart find any evidence that Mr. Welch condones or encourages bad means for good ends. He will find that it is crystal clear that JBS insists on good means to achieve good ends.

When The John Birch Society was warning of the communist takeover of Cuba in January, 1959, was this "bending truth with a paranoid bias that influences many people who have limited critical ability"? Would Dr. Lockhart not admit that JBS was virtually alone in "bending the truth" about Castro and yet it was right when all others were wrong? Our State Department needs a good dose of truth elixir, for it had ample evidence of Castro's communism, yet deceived the citizens of both Cuba and the United States.

There are only two things in the middle of the road - a yellow stripe and a dead polecat. My Grandpa always told me, "Go Right and you will never go wrong." Mr. J. Edgar Hoover said on December 3, 1963; "We are at war with the Communists, and the sooner each red-blooded American realizes that, the better and safer we will be." The first rule of warfare is "Know your enemy." The Birch Society is not the enemy of America but the Communists are. Take your choice, Dr. Lockhart, but for goodness sake - GET OUT OF THE MIDDLE OF THE ROAD!

With kind regards,
James A. Hale, DDS

Dear Mr. Martin:

Our nation, our freedom, our very existence depends on election day - November 3, 1964. I trust Americans are aware of the danger we are in, due to the left wing liberal leaders in our government, who aid communists countries by supplying them with American dollars, food, clothing, jet planes, etc. The "be nice to the communists" foreign policy of Kennedy and Johnson is a dismal failure. For proof we have only to look at Katanga, Berlin wall, Laos, Panama, Cuba, Viet Nam and many others. American soldiers are dying everyday and without victory. We must elect Barry Goldwater, Bill Hayes, Bob Price, George Bush and Jack Crichton who dare to expose communist aggression and defend our precious liberty.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Ray Ooley

Troy,

Americans for Democratic Action have not been active in this area: therefore, I cannot give you a straight answer.

The John Birth Society attempted to organize in Alpine several years ago during my second term as mayor, and they made an effort to get me to their meetings and supplied me with their literature, which I read. I saw their movies -- shown, incidentally, at the American Legion Hall -- including the one that shows Communism covering the earth like Sherwin-Williams paint. The attempt to organize fizzled out, but the group continues to operate anonymously.

A significant fact about the John Birch Society is that you never know who is a member. Individuals do the dirty work leaving the organization blameless. This makes it difficult to fight back -- just as in the case of the Ku Klux Klan.

Off of the top of my head I would venture the opinion that the John Birch Society is strictly an American product with no Communist agent laughing at us in the background, and I would also venture the same for the Americans for Democratic Action. The Communists are not that smart. The A. D. A. has been falsely associated with Communism by those who fall for the equation: "Spending equals Socialism equals Communism". Nothing could be farther from the truth.

At least we know who members of the Americans for Democratic Action are, and their organizational government is at least democratic in form.

Again I commend you for your journalistic attitude.

Dear Sirs:

May I just say to you that one of the greatest thrills in my entire life came last week when a cousin of mine sent me your Diamond Jubilee paper.

Imagine finding out about all my old school teachers, friends, and neighbors from that! I had read about my grandfather, Bayless E. Cobb (Postmaster). I knew that.

I read the paper until 4 o' clock in the morning and thought I had seen every inch of it! Then this morning I was looking over it for something and under the story of the cowboy reunion was my father's name, Thad Cobb, receiving $5.00 for riding broncos even before I was born! What a thrill! It was surely a wonderful paper.

I am just wondering if you would have any more copies. I will send addresses and money for two more if you have them.

I went to school in Canyon and to Normal. As a girl of 7 I stood and watched the Normal burn and it was just as real as yesterday from your picture. So many of the people I remember! Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Conner and so many of the faculty. I was going to school in Canyon when we acquired the mascots from Goodnights. Thanks again for a wonderful memory. My mother worked at Cousins Hall.

Dear Editor:

Is Goldwater militant and trigger happy?
In my life time we have had five democrat presidents.

Wilson; The war to save the world for democracy.
Roosevelt; The war to end all wars.
Truman; A war of expediency in Korea.
And the last two have a lovely war going on now in Viet Nam.
Five, and every one a war.

They are grand masters of accusing their opposition of their own faults.
They will ride the party to get themselves elected, and after elected, they proudly proclaim themselves, New Deal, Fair Deal or New Frontier.

When Mr. Goldwater speaks, he sounds sincere and honest, anyway no one has ever written a book proving beyond a reasonable doubt that he is dishonest.
If you vote for Senator Goldwater or not,
In your heart you know he's right.

Mr. Martin,

I did not get to read your editorial on the John Birch Society, but did read the letter from W. E. Lockhart, M. D. and would like to give him a straight answer. First, the John Birch Society is less secret than the Elks, Masons, or Knights of Columbus because they invite guests to their meetings and all information available to members is also available to non-members. Anyone can subscribe to the John Birch Society bulletin.

Second, it is a monolithic body, but the arguments against authoritative structure in the form of government has little bearing on the case of the voluntary association when persuasion is the only method used. It also believes in the form of government which we enjoy today.

Third, there are those in search of Communists who differ with the policies of the extreme (?) right wing, but as far as I can tell they are not doing so well in their fight against Communism. How Dr. Lockhart knows the number of persons that are spreading the principles of Communism throughout the world, I don't know, but he may be right that the actual number is not as great as the John Birch Society presents. The frightening thing to me is the apparent number of persons in high positions that are spreading the Communist Doctrine. Dr. Lockhart also says that Communism is actually failing. Since United States recognition in 1933, the Communists have grown from practically nothing to enslaving one billion people, which is 40% of the world population, killing 60 million in the process. If this is failure I'd hate to see success. Dr. Lockhart says that Russia is rapidly changing to our prinples. Could it be that we are rapidly changing to their principles?

Fourth, I don't know if the Supreme Court is "soft on Communism" or not. In the three year period, 1956-58, the Supreme Court decided 52 cases involving Communism and subversion in government. The decisions supported the Communistic position 41 times, the anti-communistic position only 11 times. The Warren Court has also stirred thoughtful, earnest criticism from highly reputable authorities such as the Conference of State Chief Justices, the American Bar Association Committee on Communist Strategy, Tactics, and Objectives, J. Edgar Hoover, and The New York Daily Times. It does seem that there are others in the United States, besides the John Birch Society that think the Supreme Court is "Soft on Communism".

Fifth, I might be one of those people who have limited critical ability, and not wanting to undermine our democratic society I would like very much if Dr. Lockhart could show what is untrue in the John Birch literature.

Sixth, in answer to extremism is not good, I can only quote, "Extremism in the defense of liberty is no vice. Moderation in the pursuit of justice is no virtue".

"Give me liberty or give me death."

"I would rather be dead than Red."

I am not a member of the John Birch Society, and stand to be corrected, but apparently I hold the same thoughts that you, Mr. Martin, and others are thinking. What is wrong with the John Birch Society? Would not it be terrible if the John Birch Society was right about Communism and no one would listen? Maybe, just maybe, it is time the American people stand up to be counted.

Sincerely,
Carl Wooten

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Brand of Friona announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva Katherine, to Fabian Lee Renner of Perryton. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Renner of Canyon. Miss Brand is a graduate of Friona High School and is employed at Plains Publishers in Friona. Her fiance attended Friona schools and is employed by Perryton Glass and Tile Company in Perryton. An early spring wedding is being planned by the couple.

Friemel-Haeberle Nuptials Read In St. Mary's Church

In a ceremony read at 3 p.m. Oct. 10 in St. Mary's Church of Umbarger, Miss Virginia Friemel became the bride of Lt. Stephen Paul Haeberle.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Friemel of Umbarger.

The bridegroom, stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base, is the son of John Haeberle of Wichita, Kansas.

Msgr. W. F. Bosen officiated at the double ring vows.

Miss Linda Wieck presented traditional wedding selections, and St. Mary's choir sang "Ave Maria".

The sanctuary was decorated with vases of white chrysanthemums. Candelabra holding lighted tapers were entwined with greenery and accented with mums placed at either side of the altar.

Miss Cynthia Friemel, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Attending as bridesmaids were Irene Batenhorst of Umbarger and Beth Kennedy of Amarillo. Miss Kathy Hardesty was maid of honor.

All the attendants were attired in moss green organza over taffeta. The dresses were styled with scoop necklines, and bell skirts. Headpieces of moss green, fashioned with the same styling as the bride's, and featuring short veils, were worn. The attendants carried crescent shaped bouquets formed of bronze mums and pearled green grapes.

Charles Schultz of Rochester, N. Y. was best man. Serving as groomsman was Wayne Friemel, brother of the bride, and assuming ushering duties were Billy Stocker and Marvin Batenhorst.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal gown of white peau de soie fashioned with a scoop neckline and bell skirt. Her chapel veil of silk bridal illusion was attached to a peau de soie open rose, and centered with pearlized orange blossoms taken from the wedding crown of her mother. She carried a crescent bouquet of white mums and white pearlized grapes.

To carry out the theme of "something old,. . .", she wore pearl earrings from Ginza, Japan as something borrowed, and a blue garter for something blue.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in St. Mary's Hall.

The Bride's table was laid with a handdrawn linen cloth with white spiral tapers and bouquets of the attendants serving as decoration for the table. Mrs. Bob Brockman, aunt of the bride, presided at the bride's book. About 250 guests registered for the reception. Out of town guests attending were Mrs. Agnes Schembri, Sacramento, California, who is grandmother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Valentine, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crowch, all of Oklahoma, Clara Hess of Arkansas, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Weaver of Borger.

The bride traveled in a moss green suit with brown accessories.

The couple is now at home at Forest Hill Apartments, 160 N. Apache, Amarillo.

The bride is a graduate of St. Scholastica Academy, Canon City, Colorado. She will continue her studies in Home Economics at Amarillo College where she is a sophomore student.

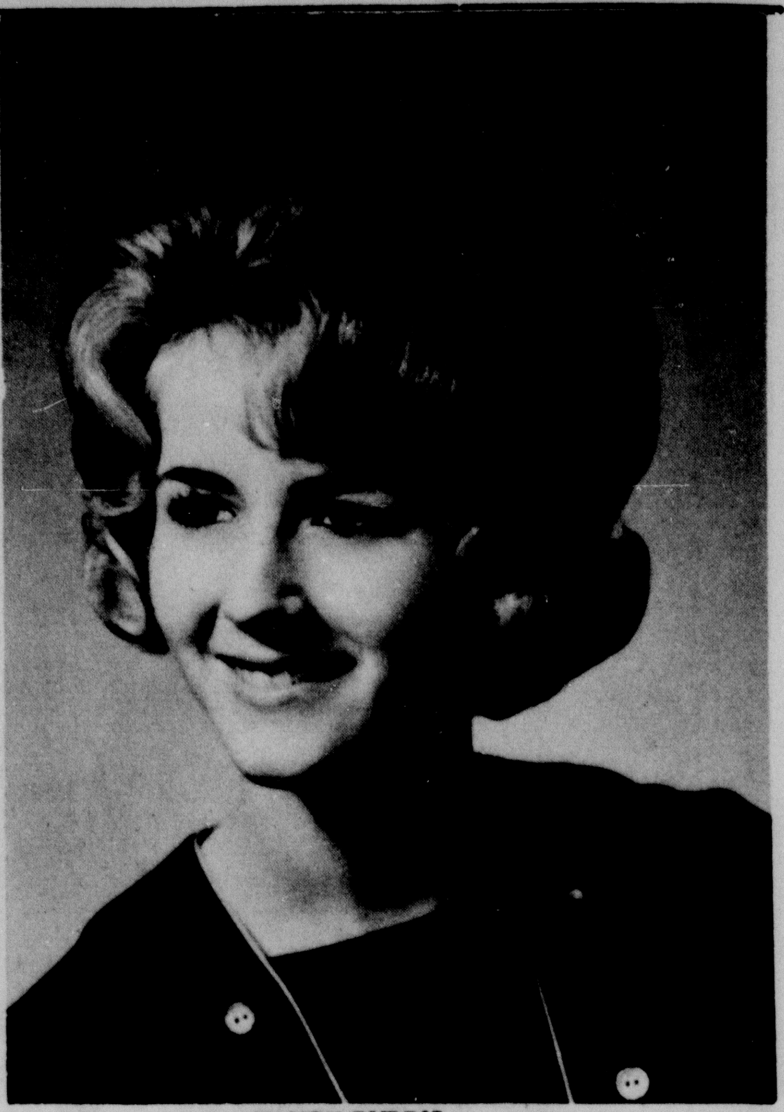
Her husband received his B. A. degree from Sacramento State College, Sacramento, California, and is presently serving as personnel officer with the United States Air Force at Amarillo Air Force Base.

Pre-nuptial courtesies included a breakfast in the L.K. Goodner home of Amarillo, hostessed by Jane Goodner; a Kitchen shower in the Robert Brockman home, hostessed by Mrs. Bill Dorsey, Irene Batenhorst, and Mrs. Brockman; and a wedding buffet supper in the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and immediate families.

Program

"Decorative Containers for Home Use and Gift Giving" will be discussed and demonstrated by Mrs. Don Kievet, Sept. 23.

Open to all interested persons, the program will be free of charge and will be presented at 2 p.m. in the Farm Bureau Building.



NANCY BURRIS

Nuptials Announced For Nancy Burris

Mr. and Mrs. Burton B. Burris of Portales, N.M., and formerly of Canyon are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Nancy, to Sammy Jacobs.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Gouldy of Hereford, Texas.

Nuptial vows will be read Friday , Oct. 23, at 7 p.m. at the Central Christian Church, Portales.

Rev. Jack Cox, pastor of the Central Christian Church of Amarillo will officiate at the ceremony.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Canyon High School and attended summer session at West Texas State University. She is now employed at the First National Bank of Portales.

Jacobs is a graduate of Clarendon High School and attended West Texas State University for two years. He is now associated with R. B. Allen Lumber Company of Portales.

Beta Sigma Phi Plans Made Rush Party Held Wednesday

Chi Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi finalized plans for the fall rush party at its regular meeting last Wednesday evening.

The chapter met in the home of Mrs. Bob Henry, with Mrs. Carl Sims as co-hostess.

All members stood and repeated the "Opening Ritual" in unison. Roll call and the reading and approval of the last meeting minutes was followed by the business session, conducted by Mrs. Henry, president.

The audit form from Beta Sigma Phi international office was read acknowledging the chapter contributions to the Beta Sigma Phi International Loan Fund and to the Beta Sigma Phi International Endowment Fund.

A letter from the 1964 state Beta Sigma Phi project fund requesting donations to the project--the state school for mentally retarded children--was read. This was approved at the 1964 state convention as the state project.

The names of transferees were read and given to the membership committee.

Pampa Beta Sigma Phi chapters are hosting the Northwest Texas Area convention, Oct. 17-18. On the agenda for Sunday, October 18 is registration and coffee, 8-9 a.m.; forums at 9 a.m., church, 10 a.m. followed by a Southern luncheon at 12:30 p.m. The afternoon will include a general assembly, a tea and the Closing Ritual. The convention will be held in the Coronado Inn. The chapter year book and scrapbook will be entered in competition with others from the area.

Rush party invitations and tentative names of rushees were submitted for approval.

The Fall rush party, a costume Orbit Party, and a salad supper, was held Wednesday, Oct. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the Methodist Student Center.

The box supper scheduled for Nov. 14 was set for the Farm Bureau Building, with all rushees, sorority members and husbands attending.

Hunsley Hills Clubhouse will be the site for the model meeting, Nov. 18. A presentation of Beta Sigma Phi will be on the agenda at this meeting.

Favorable comments on the Fall Fashion show were discussed and suggestions for making this an annual affair were considered.

The Gunn Brothers Stamp Raffle will be held during the month of November. Books of stamps will be raffled and given away Dec. 1.

It was announced that the chapter Valentine Queen selected by secret ballot is definite, but there was a tie for the princess slot. This year there will be two princesses, creating more suspense for the Valentine Ball, to be held in February.

Added to committees were Mrs. Jimmie Golden-social; Mrs. Wayne Turley-membership; and Mrs. Carl Sims-ways and means.

The hostess door prize was won by Mrs. Robert Sims.

The meeting adjourned with members standing for the "Closing Ritual" and joining hands for the Mizpah.

Mrs. Jack Berry presented the program entitled "Self Estimate". Discussion on "What do you ask of life?" and a distribution of a self estimate chart concluded the meeting.

Members attending the meeting were Mesdames Jack Berry, Bob Glazener, Jimmie Golden, Wayne Turley, Bob Sims, Norman Rice, Mack White, Elmer Clement, Carl Sims, and Bob Henry.

Mrs. Johnnie Robinson will hostess the next meeting Oct. 21 at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. J. Mack White will co-hostess the meeting.

County Gets More Water

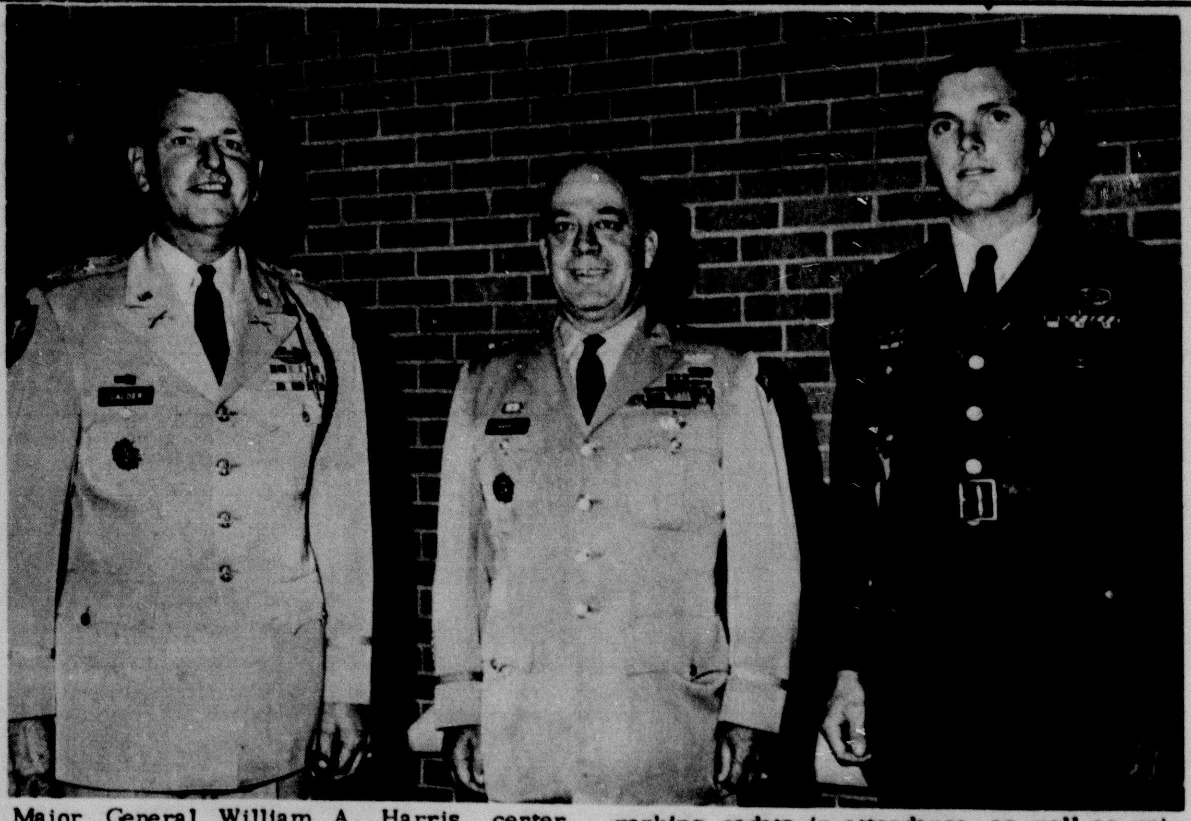
A little rain can go a long way, and Randall County farmers are feeling the affects of the moisture which fell Sunday night.

According to Dr. M. B. Measamer of West Texas State University, the total moisture for Canyon since the first of the year stands at 10.92 inches, following the .14 inches of rain that fell Sunday.

The Sunday night rain was the first recorded in October, Measamer said.

A total of 2.85 inches of moisture was recorded in Canyon during September.

"This is a deficit of about six inches or a little more for the year," Measamer stated.



Major General William A. Harris, center, conducted an inspection visit of facilities at the U. S. Army Instructor Unit (ROTC) at West Texas State University Tuesday of this week. A luncheon was given in his honor, with Military Science Department members and ranking cadets in attendance, as well as university officials. With General Harris are left, Lt. Col. Henry L. Calder, Professor of Military Science, and right, Dempsey Malaney, Commander of the Cadet Corps.

Death Claims Mrs. McFarland

Funeral services for Mrs. Lillie Mae (Kittie) McFarland, 52, were conducted at 3 p.m. Tuesday in the Happy First Baptist Church.

Burial followed in Dreamland Cemetery.

Rev. A. L. Swagerty, pastor of the Fieldton First Baptist Church, and Rev. Sam Pounds, pastor of the Arney Baptist Church, officiated.

Services were under the direction of LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

Pall bearers were J. C. Garner, Harry Edmonds, Lee Donnell, Dozier Thornton, Odell Rawls and I. C. Hudson.

Mrs. McFarland of Route 2, Happy, died at 2:20 a.m. Monday in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. She had lived in Happy since 1934. She moved to Happy from Pharr.

She was born in Rosenberg, March 27, 1912 and married W. E. (Pete) McFarland in San Juan, June 17, 1930.

She was a member of the Arney Baptist Church and was a housewife in Happy.

Among the survivors are her husband, W. E. (Pete) McFarland of Happy; three brothers, Joe Clark of Laredo, Jack Clark of Corpus Christi and Sam Clark of Mountain Home, Arkansas; and two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Salge of Garland and Mrs. Ruth Mitchell of Fullerton, California.

Library Gets Encyclopedia

A 15-volume set of Compton's Encyclopedia was presented to the Randall City - County Library this week by Neblett Hospital.

According to hospital business manager Russell Altmiller, the books were acquired through the American Hospital Association. The local hospital purchased the set, and presented the books to the library Tuesday.

A rolling stand for the books was part of the gift from the hospital to the library.

Rites Held For Former CHS Student

Paul Charles Barlow, 20, died at 2:45 a.m. October 13 in Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo.

Dr. Winfred Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Amarillo, officiated at the funeral held in Amarillo Wednesday at 2 p.m.

Interment was in Llano Cemetery.

Mr. Barlow was employed as a welder with King Trailer and Equipment Co.

He was born September 23, 1944, in Detroit, Michigan. He and his family moved to Canyon two years ago from Custer, Michigan.

Mr. Barlow attended Canyon High School for two years, moving to Amarillo with his family approximately 10 months ago.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Barlow, of the home; a brother George Dale, stationed with the United States Marine Corps at Honolulu, Hawaii; sisters, Mrs. Lonnie Camp of Potter, Nebraska, and Mrs. Marion Hartman of Amarillo; grandmothers, Mrs. Alice Robertson of Amarillo and Mrs. Kathryn Dauenhauer of Detroit, Michigan.

Nabor Lusby presented this office with a fine large musk melon one day last week on condition that we would not make mention of it in the paper, and we won't.

Ralph Duncan, chairman of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce forum committee, will meet with each group to head the discussion.

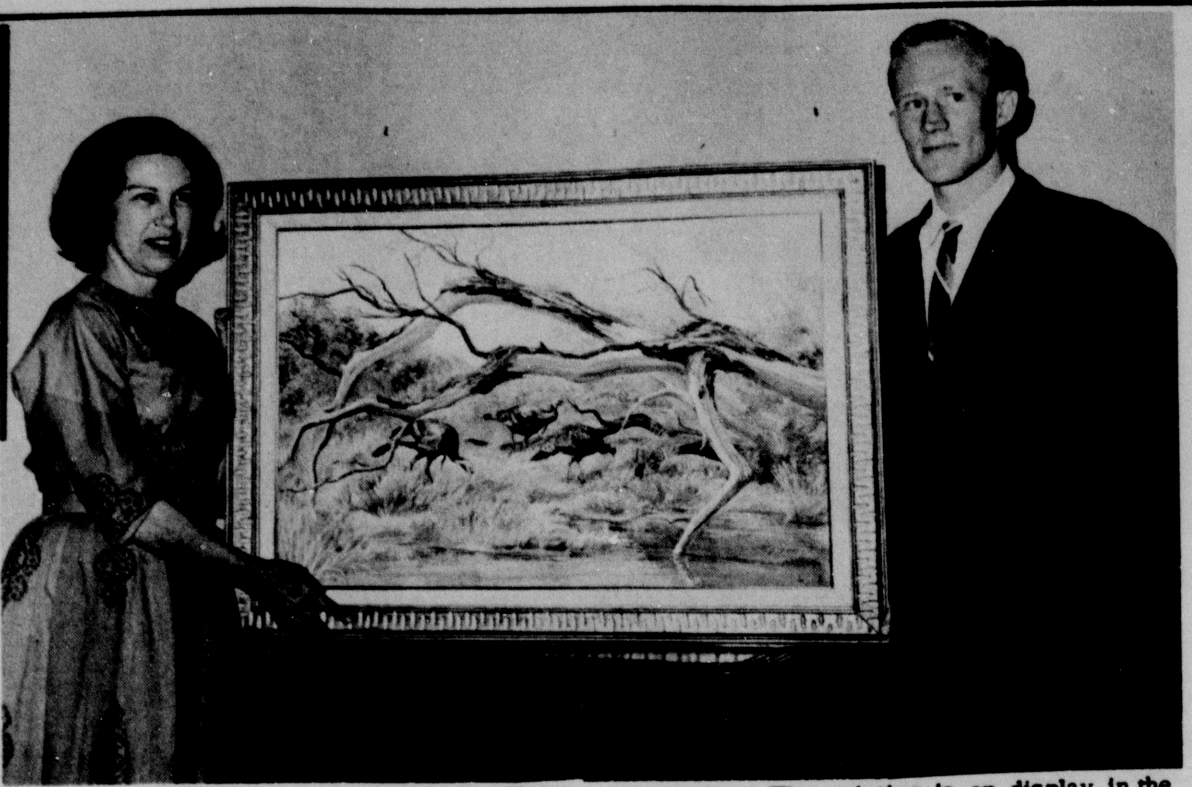
Scout Camporee

Approximately 60 boys participated in the Frontier Camporee at Boy Scout Camp Don Harrington this weekend.

Canyon troops 66 and 108 and Happy troup 34 left here Friday afternoon and returned Saturday afternoon.

First place winner in the district camporee was troop 66, directed by scoutmaster Lee Roy Moreland.

The Pioneer Patrol was the winning patrol. Patrol leader is Gene Myers.



Mrs. Olive Vandgruff Bugbee, Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum art curator, presents one of her paintings to Kappa Pi honorary art fraternity president Jon Pitts. The painting will be used in raising funds to go toward the art fraternity scholarship fund at West Texas State University. The painting is on display in the University Bookstore window in the Student Union Building game room. Tickets will be sold by the Kappa Pi group in the near future. The person buying the winning ticket will receive the painting. Drawing for the winner will be Dec. 5 at 10 a.m. at KCAN Radio station.

Phoenix Club Dinner For Members Friday

Approximately 250 members are expected for the second annual Phoenix Club Dinner Friday in the East Dining Hall.

The dinner, open to Phoenix Club members only, begins at 7 p.m. East dining hall is located on campus at West Texas State University.

Featured speaker for the affair is Reg Manning, Pulitzer Prize-winning cartoonist. Manning, an internationally syndicated cartoon artist, is referred to as "the man of 10,000 editorial cartoons".

Manning received the Pulitzer Prize in 1951 for a memoriable Korean War cartoon called "Hats".

Presiding over the Phoenix Club fete will be Frank E. Barrett of Hereford, president of the WTSU Ex-Students, Incorporated.

Dr. J. A. Hill, president emeritus of West Texas State, will give the invocation and president Dr. James P. Cornette will deliver the welcome.

Following dinner will be the Phoenix Club report by Barrett. The speaker, Manning, will then be introduced by Wayne Thomas of Hereford, first vice-president of Ex-Students, Inc.

Dinner music will be provided by a combo directed by Gerald Grant.

In charge of decorations are H. R. Fulton and Erin Wertenberger.

The Phoenix Club is an organization of Ex-Students and friends interested in aiding and supporting WTSU's program for students, ex-students and the state.

Club membership is based on financial support of at least $60 per year through the Ex-Students, Inc. Development Fund, with all gifts tax-deductible.

One large meeting of members is arranged each year, with the meeting being the annual Phoenix Club Dinner held during Homecoming each fall.

set up by their office which is uniform among all offices. In Randall County offices are open from 8 o'clock in the morning to 5 in the afternoon, five days per week. The sheriff's office is open 24 hours daily.

"With the exception of the county treasurer and district clerk, all Randall County officials have business or agricultural interests which demand part of their time and attention. There are only two county officials who are required to have any special qualifications in education or experience. They are the criminal district attorney and the county auditor.

"You will note that the county auditor's salary is the same as that of the tax assessor-collector and the salary of the auditor's assistant is the same as that paid to other secretaries or first assistant deputies.

"In the order of appointment for Randall County Auditor, Judge Jordan states that the salary is set 'after having fully inquired of and considered the necessary labor, effort, skill and time required of such county auditor in said Randall County and the importance of the office to the county and citizens thereof.'

"I appreciate the problems faced by the Commissioners Court in setting salaries. I also know that many commissioners courts over the state resent the position of the County Auditor, who is appointed by the District Judge and whose salary is also set by the District Judge. This is true because many county commissioners do not realize that the county business transactions are under audit and that the County Auditor must be entirely independent of any county officials."

In other business, the court officially called a $500,000 airport bond election for Nov. 3, same date as the general election. Bond issue to be voted upon calls for issuance of $500,000 in revenue bonds to mature over a 35-year period and to bear interest not to exceed 6 percent.

If the bond issue carries and the bonds are sold, they are to be amortized with revenue from the airport and may not be paid off with tax funds.

The court granted $50 to Mrs. T. B. McCarter for a trip to Austin on Randall County Historical Society business. Mrs. McCarter is chairman of the county historical society.

Commissioners accepted about a mile of road in Precinct 3, east of Dreamland Cemetery.

Moore Tuesday said the Jim Montgomery mentioned in Stroup's petition died recently at Tulia.

Moore said he hopes to employ an attorney and appeal the case.

NANCY HICKS

Nancy Hicks Participates In Banquet

Nancy Hicks, Canyon High School senior, leaves Friday to attend an honor banquet in Dallas.

Also attending will be Mrs. Orville Hicks, Nancy's mother; Mrs. Clara Long; CHS home economics teacher; and Ima Dura Hale , area consultant.

Honor banquet is given in honor of the state officers for Future Homemakers of America, Future Farmers of America, Distributive Education and 4-H.

The banquet is given by the State Fair of Dallas and will be held in the Conrad-Hilton Hotel.

Nancy, president of the state FHA, will bring the greetings at the banquet. Earlier Friday she will participate in the parade.

The four will return from Dallas Saturday.

Calendar Sale

Canyon High School band members will begin selling birthday calendars Saturday Oct. 24 during a town-wide canvass.

The sale will continue for several days.

Those wishing to purchase a 1965 calendar with birthday and anniversary dates listed on it, should contact a band member or a band parent.

DaddyDate Nite Held

About 200 Canyon Future Homemakers and their fathers attended Daddy Date Nite at the Canyon High School cafeteria Tuesday.

Canyon Junior High School FHA officers met with Canyon FHA'ers. Junior High officers brought the food which was served cafeteria style.

Nancy Hicks was in charge of installation of Junior High officers.

Marilyn Hodges, ninth grade FHA song leader, led the group in a sing-song.

Lee Ann Kelley gave the invocation and Jack D. Williams dismissed the group with the benediction.

Daddy Date Nite is an annual affair, semi-formal, and girls who are members of the FHA organizations invite their fathers as dates.

Next scheduled meeting date for the Canyon High School FHA will be Thursday, November 12. Meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium and will be in charge of the sophomores.

MuseumGiven Oil Painting

Recently donated to Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum was a $5,000 tax-deductible oil painting.

Dr. Robert Jarrett of Canyon donated the painting, which was done by the late Harold Bugbee.

"The painting was given to Dr. Jarrett because it depicts a scene showing that someone is about to need medical attention-quick," said Boone McClure, museum director.

The blue-toned oil shows a carriage drawn by what will soon be run-away horses, to be frightened by a family of bears standing in rocky area which the carriage is approaching.

"Dr. Jarrett gave the painting to the museum because he knows how important Harold was to the museum," said McClure.

Reveau-Bassett, Dallas artist, appraised the painting.

Boosters Plan Covered Dish Fete For Boys

Canyon "A" and "B" football teams will be treated to a covered dish supper next Thursday at 5:30 p.m. in the Junior Livestock Barn.

Each parent and member of the Eagle Booster Club is to bring a covered dish and dessert to the supper.

The Thursday night supper will be regular Booster Club meeting instead of the usual Tuesday night meeting.

Eagle Boosters met Tuesday in the high school gymnasium to view films of the Canyon-Olton game. Also shown were old films of football from years '39 and '41.

Canyon Study Hears Politics

Representatives of the two major political parties spoke to members of the Canyon Study Club at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Dewey Bryant hostessed the meeting in her home, with Mrs. Elton Chambless and Mrs. Mark Clapp as co-hostesses.

Speaking on "Politics in the Community", were Dick Brooks of Amarillo, representing the Republican party, and J. Pat Stephens, instructor of Government at WTSU, representing the Democratic party.

Platforms and philosophy of each party were outlined by the speakers, who answered questions by members following their programs.

Refreshments followed a Hallowe'en theme.

Guests present for the meeting were Mesdames Duane Guy, Ella Brown, and Judy Johnston.

Members attending the meeting were Mesdames Charles Brasher, Elton Cox, Walter Cranmer, Don Sheffy, Stan Elliott, Dick Dawdy, Jim Russell, Don Ray, Robert Wood, Don Byars, Bobby Byrd, Joe Britt, Floyd Langford, Roy Forehand, Mark Clapp, Dewey Bryant, and Johnny Raymond.

The next meeting of the club will be at the Federated club dinner, October 26, 1964 at the Rex Reeves Elementary School. Mrs. Robert Lindsey is to be guest speaker for the event. A member of the Woman's Book Club and the University Study Club of Canyon, Mrs. Lindsey serves as president of the Top of Texas district.

Dress Revue Of CHS Band Set Tuesday

Canyon High School marching band will present a dress revue of the marching contest routine Tuesday, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p.m.

The performance, which will be held in the high school stadium, is open to the public and will include the 64-piece marching band.

Gary Zook, band director, said a general band parents meeting will be held in the band hall immediately following the revue.

Discussion of the annual band calendars will be led by Gerald Hemphill, band parents president. The calendars, which will be sold by band members, will be available Saturday, Oct. 24.

Dental Clinic At University

Dental Health Education Workshop is slated Oct. 21-22 at West Texas State University.

Sessions are to be from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts building.

Allene Stovall, physical education instructor at WTSU, is in charge of arrangements for the second annual clinic.

Area teachers, dentists and health classes at WT are invited to attend workshop discussions and speeches. Meetings are open to the public.

Included as speakers are Dr. Smith B. Sypert, chairman, Panhandle Dental Health Committee; Dr. Tom Gerald, president-elect, Panhandle District Dental Association; Dr. John Wilbanks; Dr. Jesse Gee, Austin; Dr. Calwell Beckham; and Dr. Weldon Adair, president, Panhandle District Dental Association.

Sponsoring the clinic are the Texas Dental Association Council, Texas State Department of Health and the Panhandle District Dental Society.

Parkers Host 300 On Tour

J. O. Parker and Foster Parker, owners of Parker Cattle Company near Canyon, hosted more than 300 persons Tuesday for the Harvestore Cattlemen's Field Day.

Cattlemen from 17 states viewed modern cattle feedlot methods at the Parker facilities , ate a barbecue lunch and heard speeches most of the afternoon.

The daylong tour was sponsored by the A. O. Smith Corporation of the Harvestore Grain Storage Bins. Parker has two Harvestore structures at his cattle-feed lot 30 miles southeast of Canyon.

Foster Parker explained to the group techniques used in reconstituting grain at the feedlot.

Parker had fed two pens of cattle reconstituted grain as an experiment for the visiting farmers and feeders.

The touring group also inspected the reconstituting equipment and the two 12,000 bushel silos, which were made by Harvestore Company.

Blood Tests For Diabetes

Diabetic Detection Drive blood tests will be given Randall County residents Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Tests will be given in Randall County Courthouse from 6:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m.

Eligible for the free blood tests are four main groups of people.

Included are individuals over age 40, blood relatives of known diabetics, the obese and parents of babies whose birthweight was 9 pounds or more.

People planning to take the tests are requested to wait two hours or longer after eating a meal before having the test made.

Volunteers will register patients at the door for information such as age, weight, and any other background necessary.

Three technicians from the state laboratory in Austin will take the blood tests.

The Diabetic Detection Drive is sponsored by the Texas Medical Society and the Potter-Randall County Medical Society.

PTA Meets Tonight

Canyon Parents Teachers Association will meet tonight Thursday, at 7 o'clock in the Rex Reeves Elementary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis, presidents, will preside at the second meeting for this year.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Women representing churches of the Plains Presbyterial Society were hosted this week at a meeting by members of the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon. Receiving nametags from Mrs. C. Petruccione, president of the local Presbyterian women's association are Mrs. James Mahon of Amarillo, center, and Mrs. Allen Hodges of Littlefield, right. Mrs. Hodges is president of the Plains Presbyterial Society and Mrs. Mahon is vice-president.

Basketball Drills Open At University

Four former Canyon Eagles take to the court as West Texas State basketballers begin drills at the Field House today.

Playing with the Varsity Buffaloes this season are Mickey Fitts and Harry Lisle, both members of the last season freshman squad.

Joining the freshmen for workouts are Skip Moore and Jody Richardson, teammates from the AA State Champion Eagles of last season.

Skip, a 6-4, 180-pounder, is rated as a strong rebounder for freshman coach Dale Burrows' squad. Skip shot a 57.8 percentage at the field goal line last season for the Eagles.

Jody, 6-1, 170 pounds, has a year of development ahead of him and could become one of the freshmen's leading players.

Mickey and Harry moved up to the Varsity this year. Mickey measures 6-5, weighs 185 pounds and is a forward. Harry, 5-8, 155 pounds, is a guard.

Mickey and Harry will be playing under head coach Jimmy Viramontes.

Basketball practice opened today with practice sessions set from 3 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. weekdays.

Reporting for varsity play this season are returnees Kirby Pugh, George Scott, James Strahan, Joe McWilliams, Marvin Mitchell, Gail Simpson, Wallace Franklin, Sherffield Whaley and Fitts and Lisle.

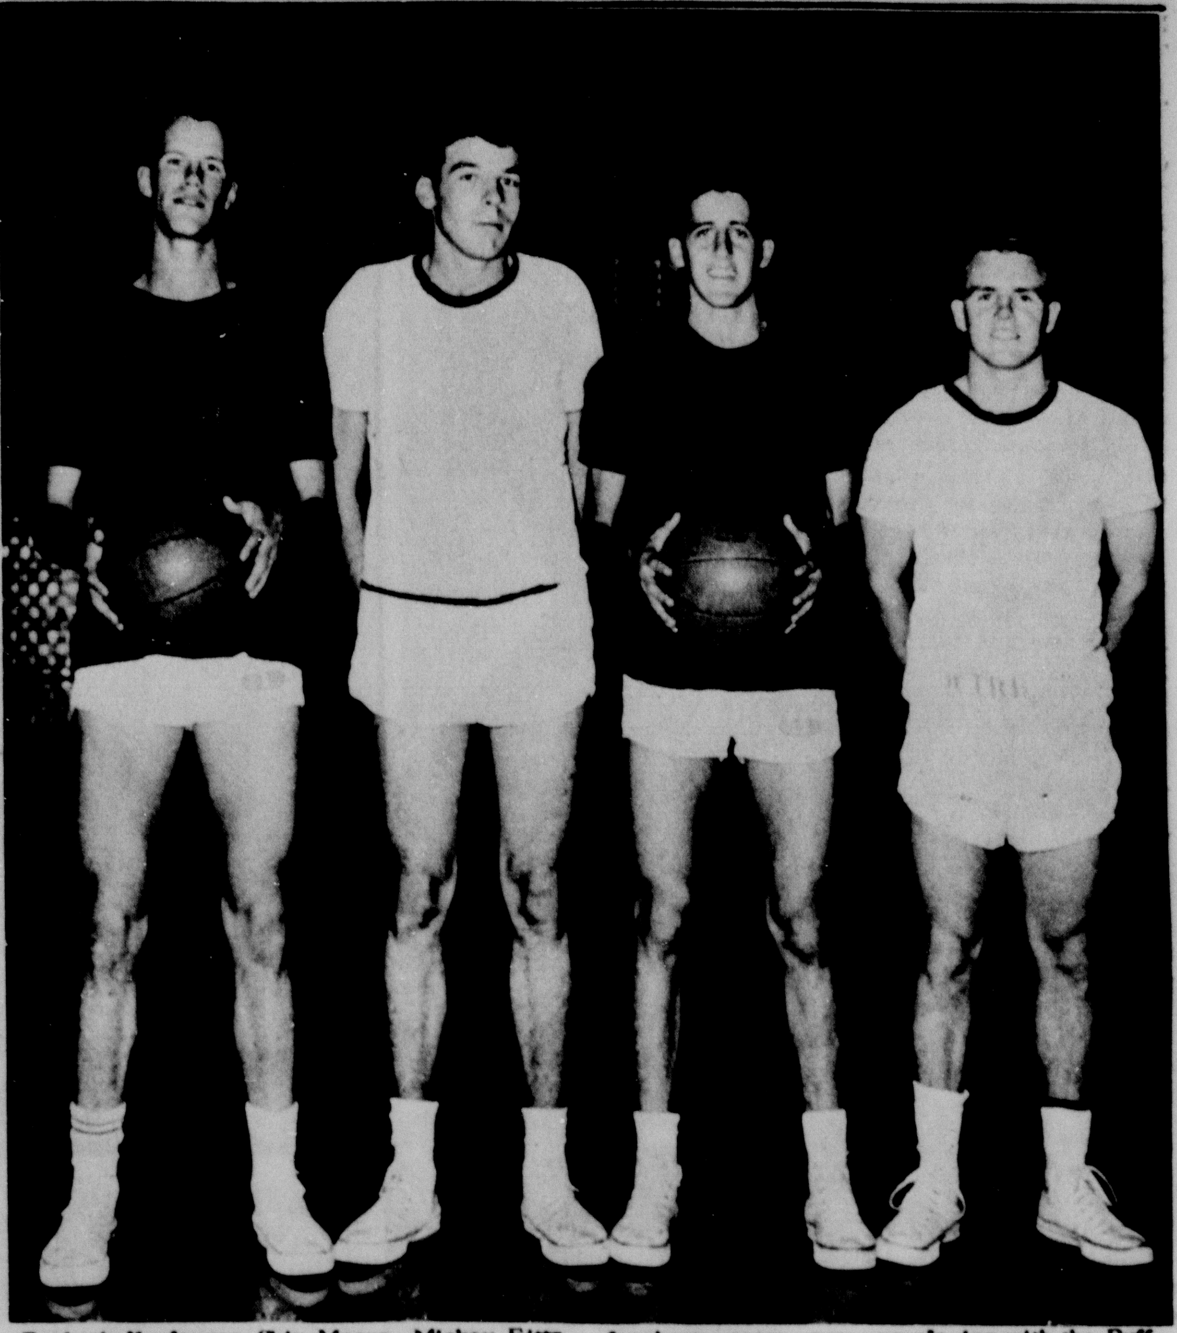
Four junior college transfers on the squad are E. B. Attaway, Ben Finley, James Giles and Calvin Taylor.

Rounding out the list of cagers are six frosh players, including Jack Johnson, Robert Seagroves, Rondy Williams, Wade Crook and Richardson and Moore.

Actual basketball play begins Dec. 1 against New Mexico Highlands at Canyon. Games will begin at 6 p.m. for Freshmen and 8 p.m. for Varsity.

Earlier plans include two intrasquad scrimmages during early November, one for Basketball Booster Club members and prospective members only and the second scrimmage, the Hall of Fame game.

Both scrimmages will be in the WTSU Field House and boys will dress in game uniforms.



Basketball players Skip Moore, Mickey Fitts, Jody Richardson and Harry Lisle, pictured from left to right, are four Canyon Eagle products now listed on teams at West Texas State University. Harry and Mickey, both sophomores and members of last season's freshman team, are now playing with the Buffalo Varsity. Skip and Jody, players on the AA State Championship Canyon squad of '63-'64, are two of the six players recruited for freshman squad members. The boys joined WT teammates when practices began this afternoon.

FFA Names Canyon Boy

Troy Roach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Roach, was recently elected to the office of district treasurer for Future Farmers of America.

He was elected to the one year term of office at the bi-annual district FFA meeting held in Amarillo during September. Also attending the meeting from Canyon were Bill Richey and Kyle Powers.

Duties of district treasurer include keeping records of all district funds, encouraging thrift among the members and working with district officers to plan and finance the district banquet.

Roach has several FFA projects including a registered quarter horse, mare, a registered Angus heifer, and 15 acres of wheat.

A junior at Canyon High School, he serves as vice-president of the junior class. He is also reporter of the Canyon FFA chapter. He plans to attend Texas A&M University and to be a veterinarian.

Canyon Church Hosts Presbyterial Groups

Members of the drama department of West Texas State University gave a reader's drama presentation of "The Construction" for the Northern District Meeting of Plains Presbyterial Society Tuesday.

The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon, headed by Mrs. C. Petruccione, hosted the meeting.

The play reading, by Ralph Stone, featured 10 readers. Mrs. W. A. Moore of the drama department, a member of the women's association was director of the reading. The play was originally presented at the Second National Meeting of United Presbyterian Women at Purdue University last summer.

"Power to Become Free and Obedient" was the theme of the meeting.

Mrs. Allen Hodges, of Littlefield, is president of the Presbyterial society, and Mrs. James A. Mahon of Amarillo is vice-president.

The program included workshops for the five departments of the organization, led by Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. Robert Rigler of Plainview, Mrs. Harvey Todd and Mrs. E. L. Butterfield of Amarillo, Mrs. Jack Allen of Perryton, Mrs. L. H. Owens of Canyon, Miss Mildren Hulsey and Mrs. Lewis Koerselman of Tulia, Mrs. N. E. Anderson and Mrs. Bill Jackson of Canadian, Mrs. J. O. Townsend and Mrs. John O. Lewis of Borger and Mrs. David Thomas of McLean.

Luncheon was served by members of the First Methodist Church WSCS.

Presidents of the local association participated in the afternoon program, Fellowship of the Least Coin, as they presented pledges to the mission of the church.

Included in this group were Mrs. J. M. Hyden, First Church, Mrs. Tom Badrow, John Knox; Mrs. Alfred W. Brown, Northminster and Mrs. M. M. Laing, Westminster, all of Amarillo, Mrs. Howard Reynolds of Borger, Mrs. Rush A. Snyder, Canadian, Mrs. C. Petruccione, Canyon, Mrs. W. L. Montgomery, Clarendon, Mrs. Frank Buster, Childress, Mrs. Finis De Jarnett, Dalhart, Mrs. Bill Williams, Dumas, Mrs. R. B. Miller, Hereford, Mrs. Will E. Leslie, Memphis, Mrs. Raymond Glass, McLean, Mrs. J. B. McCrery, Pampa, Mrs. Ben Street, Perryton, and Mrs. Floyd S. Ulrick, White Deer.

Members of the senior and sophomore classes will participate in the day-long activities, which begin at 8:20 a.m. Friday.

Names of sophomores have been drawn by seniors, and each sophomore will be assigned to the senior all day, according to school officials.

A box lunch will be prepared by each sophomore for the senior brother or sister. These boxes will be placed on the stage in the high school auditorium and seniors will call the name of the sophomore brother or sister and cap them.

The sophomore caps will be worn all day, according to the rules.

Throughout the day, sophomores will carry books, run errands and work for the senior to whom they have been assigned.

During the final period of classes Friday, seniors will serve refreshments in the school cafeteria and prizes will be given for the two most original lunch boxes and the two most beautiful boxes.

Edith Rowell, West Texas State University sophomore, was picked as the Circle K Sweetheart this week by members of the service organization. Ronnie Shepard, president of the club, chats with Edith concerning the activities which will be in store for her this year. Janet King, senior from Amarillo, was named attendant to Miss Rowell. Edith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Rowell of Hale Center.

HerdHostsTiger Pack Saturday

Memphis State University's Tigers are big, powerful and one of the nation's toughest defensive teams.

They'll be in Buffalo Bowl Saturday night, 7:30 p.m., for Homecoming.

Head football coach Joe Kerbel's Buffaloes are going to have their hands full. After meeting the Tigers in a 29-14 hard-fought loss last year they have wasted no time while preparing for the game.

Coach Clarence Dierking, scout for West Texas State at the Mississippi Southern-Memphis State game last weekend, emphasized the power of the Memphis State unit.

"They have probably one of the biggest lines we will play against this season," said Dierking. "Offensively, their line averages 221 pounds and their backfield averages 192."

Memphis State finished 9-0-1 last season, allowing opponents only 52 points and recording 5 shutouts.

Coach Bill "Spook" Murphy uses offensive and defensive platoons.

"They have primarily a ball control club and depend more on power than on speed in the backfield," said Dierking.

Outstanding linemen include co-captain and right end Chuck Brooks, 6-5 and 230 pound senior rating All-American last season; and right tackle and co-captain Harry Schuh, 6-3 and 280 pound senior, also named All-American.

In the backfield the Tigers boast a strong and powerful fullback in Pete Ingram.

Billy Ray Farmer, wingback, is a "fine receiver", according to Dierking and halfback John Wright, 200 pound senior, is an "outstanding blocker and does a good job running the plays".

"They have two outstanding quarterbacks who are exceptionally fine runners in Billy Fletcher and Olie Cordill."

"Both quarterbacks do an exceptional job in running sprint out pass patterns,' stated Dierking.

Dierking named Bob Finamore and Doug Woodlief as top defensive players. "Finamore, a senior letterman, plays middle guard and has really played some outstanding ball for Memphis State," said Dierking.

"Woodlief is a tough inside linebacker."

Memphis State uses a variation of the "I" formation plus a number of other sets.

West Texas State University's football squad, fresh from a 21-13 drilling of North Texas State, came from the field with mainly bruises and no new and serious injuries.

Still out of action are defensive left safety Ronnie Mankin with an injured shoulder and center and linebacker Charlie Daves, on crutches while a hairline fracture just above his knee heals.

Gene Browning, who plays the left corner spot on defense, is still limping with a bad ankle but did not re-injure it in Saturday's game.

The Buffs go into this Saturday's Homecoming squabble with a 2-2 record. Following the Memphis State game, the maroon gridders host Trinity University here Oct. 24 and San Jose Oct. 31.

Smith Heads School Study Of Levelland

Dr. Emmitt D. Smith, director of program development and research at West Texas State University, will be chairman of a visiting team to evaluate the schools program of Levelland Monday and Tuesday.

The visiting team will include 29 teachers from the colleges and public schools of the area, and will evaluate the total school program of the Levelland system for the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges, accrediting agency for the South and Southwest.

Dr. W. M. Stoker, associate professor of education, and Dr. Pat Sullivan, head of the department of student teaching at WTSU, will be members of the team.

JERRY RICHARDSON

LA Sportswriter Pens Richardson Interview

Editor's Note: The following article written by Mal Florence appeared in THE LOS ANGELES TIMES last week and was mailed to THE CANYON NEWS by Crawford Kiker of Playa Del Rey, California.

BY MAL FLORENCE
TIMES Staff Writer

It's "High Noon" every Sunday for a tall Ram drink of water from the Panhandle.

As a rookie "peace officer," cornerback Jerry Richardson has to shoot it out on defense with the local toughs--the Bad Ballmans from Pittsburgh, the Cogdill gang out of Detroit, the Bedsole Bunch from the Twin Cities and now the Orr and Moore Boys, who await him in Baltimore.

Unlike the cinema version, Richardson gets winged now and then, but he's shown enough savvy to indicate that he'll soon clear all of the NFL offensive varmints out of his territory.

A Texas type, Richardson is rangy (6 ft., 3 in.) and lean (196 pounds). He rides out of Canyon, Tex. and earned his spurs at West Texas State.

DRAW, PODNAH

If you can sit a spell, we'll let the young gun take the floor.

Q: As far as you're concerned, what is the most difficult thing a rookie defensive back must learn?

A: Man-to-man coverage. It's mostly zone in college. You have to make yourself watch your man despite other distractions. When he (the end) makes his first cut, you shouldn't look at the quarterback and wait for the ball. He may cut again.

(Background: In Pittsburgh, Richardson was told to take the inside move away from end Gary Ballman. He did, but Ballman cut back to the outside and scored. Although Jerry didn't recover, Harland Svare blamed his defense, not the rookie. The rookie blamed himself.)

Q: How did you feel after the Steeler game?

A: I thought I wasn't ever going to be a pro. But coach Svare said the best of 'em get beat.

DETROIT PERILS

Q: What was your pregame attitude concerning the Lions' accomplished receivers, Gail Cogdill and Terry Barr?

A: I was plenty scared and worried about that game.

(Background: Barr beat him for a touchdown, but Richardson came up with a key interception, setting up a touchdown).

Q: In the Viking game, didn't the Van Brocklins rattle you when they lined-up without huddling?

A: It caught us by surprise, but we worked it out. Ed (Meador) and Lindon (Crow) got us squared away.

(Background: On the first two offensive plays of the game, Fran Tarkenton threw into Richardson's territory aiming for Hal Bedsole. Jerry broke up both passes, breaking up Bedsole, too. He later repeated the maneuver on the goal line. The tenor was set: Prince Hal was shut out for the afternoon).

Q: In the same game, did it appear to you that Bobby Smith interfered with Paul Flatley in the fourth quarter (the pass interference call led to a Viking touchdown).

A: No. The movies showed that Bobby threw up a hand to knock down the pass but didn't touch or trip Flatley.

Q: What is your feeling about the Colt game?

A: This is shaping up as a big one. I could be covering either Jimmy Orr (flanker) or Lenny Moore (halfback, sometime flanker now). As you know, they're both real good. I'll also run into my old teammate, Jerry Logan, but we might not be so friendly now.

(Background: Logan, a sophomore defensive back, and Richardson were alternating halfbacks at West Texas in 1962.

Q: What system did you employ at West Texas?

A: Pro type. We were real spread out.

Q: Have you always been a halfback?

A: I started out as a T quarterback at Canyon High and through my first eight weeks at West Texas. But I was switched to halfback because I had more speed than any of the others at that time.

Q: How fast are you?

A: I'm too fast for the distances and too slow for the sprints. I think I ran a 48.9 440 once.

Q: I know you played against Tony Lorick (Colts) and Charley Taylor (Redskins) of Arizona State. What do you think of them?

A: Lorick is a real fine ball player -- very consistent. Taylor has his days, but he isn't as consistent as Lorick.

Q: Are you married?

A: Yes, Jo and I were married last June in Lubbock.

Q: For the record, were you born in Canyon?

A: No, Los Angeles.

Sergeant Korea Bound

Staff Sergeant Theodore Gruszkowski checks over files located in the Military Science Department at West Texas State University. Gruszkowski, who has been with the department for a little over a year, received reassignment to Korea for active duty. His successor at WTSU has not yet been named.

J. T. Graham Completes Army School

Second Lieutenant Jonathan T. Graham, Jr., whose wife Barbara, lives at 2500 Sixth Avenue, completed an officer basic course at the Army Transportation School, Fort Eustis, Va., Oct. 9.

During the course Graham received instruction in the duties and responsibilities of an Army transportation officer.

The lieutenant entered the Army last August.

Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie T. Graham, 414 Foster Lane, is a 1956 graduate of Littlefield High School. He received a B. S. degree in 1964 from West Texas State University, Canyon.

The 26-year-old officer was employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Amarillo, before entering the Army.

Thespian Comedy On Stage Tonight

Canyon High School Thespians will go on stage tonight for the first of two performances of "The Curious Savage".

Written by John Patrick, the play is a three-act comedy.

Tickets, which went on sale several weeks ago, are available from any cast member or at the high school. Admission prices are $1 for adults, 75¢ for students. They will be sold at the door.

The play will be held in the high school auditorium both Thursday and Friday nights at 8 p.m.

The production will feature Julie Puckett as Lily Belle; John Brantley as Samuel,; Charles Starnes as Titus and Lil Cowart as Mrs. Savage, all as members of the Savage family.

Also appearing in the play are Rob Barnard as Hannibal; Lou Cowart as Florence; Rose Ellen Parker as Fairy May; Dave Tully as Jeffrey; Martha Low as Mrs. Paddy, Renee Owen as Miss Willie, and Mike Morrison as Dr. Emmett.

Mrs. Mary Byrd Peacock, teacher of speech at CHS, is director of the play.

Marvin Hutton In Exercise

Marvin O. Hutton, USN, seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Hutton of Canyon participated in a Navy-Marine Corps amphibious warfare training exercise called "Hard Nose" at Camp Pendleton, Calif., Oct. 6-17, while serving aboard the destroyer USS Perkins.

The operation will test the flexibility of 11,000 Marines in an amphibious landing. They will be deployed in 39 ships manned by over 8,000 Navymen.

Pasture Prospects Excellent

Grazing prospects look good for the fall, according to County Agent John Brazzil.

Brazzil said about 20 to 30 percent of the county's wheat will be ready for grazing some time this month. Some cattle already are being moved into the county.

He said 85 percent of the wheat ground in the county has been seeded. Some of it was seeded early and that caught the rains and is ready for grazing.

The remainder will need some moisture in order for the young plants to get down a root structure. Without this root structure it would be uprooted in grazing, he explained.

Boy Scouts Work On Railroad Merit Badge

Members of Boy Scout Troop 31 are attending the third annual Boy Scout Merit Badge Course being held in Amarillo.

Sponsored by Santa Fe Railway Co., the course is being attended by 200 scouts and 26 leaders from across the Panhandle. Area towns represented are Canyon, Amarillo, Amarillo AFB, Borger, Dumas, Hartley, and Hereford.

Acting as counselors and workers with the scout troops are 32 Santa Fe employees.

Third in the series of meeting will be this evening from 7-9:30 p.m. Previous meetings have been Oct. 1 and 8.

Special chair cars on the San Franciso Chief will take the scouts on a field trip to the Clovis Railroad Yards, October 17. They will spend the day touring the facilities of the Santa Fe.

Scouts from troop 31 participating in the course are John Warren, Mike Branum, Clifford Prichard, Archie Davis, Sam Jolly, Ricky Warren, Eddie Farmer, Pat Hickman, Mike LaGrone, Ronnie Hager, Sam Richard, Don Edmonson, Bill Lumry and Fred Richard. A. M. Warren is scoutmaster of the troop.

GOP Stickers Are Available

Republican candidate stickers are available at Canyon Republican headquarters at 1705 Fifth Avenue, according to G. B. Heath.

Heath said stickers are available for Goldwater, Price and Bush.

"Aktion Gemeinsinn" Speaker Here Friday

Elizabeth Strauss, executive director of West Germany's "Aktion Gemeinsinn", will speak at West Texas State University Friday.

Program is at 10 a.m. in the Administration Building Auditorium. She is scheduled to speak at Amarillo College today.

"Aktion Gemeinsinn", organized in 1959, is an organization similar to the Advertising Council of the United States. Objectives are to educate the German citizen for a democratic way of life and individual initiative in public affairs.

Advertising agencies and the mass media of West Germany assist in the program adopted by the organization.

Among campaigns originating under "Aktion Gemeinsinn" are appeals for Germans to invite students from other countries into their homes; appeals to women to do voluntary social work in hospitals; campaigns for the aged; and safety campaigns.

The speaker, Miss Strauss, heads "Operation Community Spirit". She is touring the United States through the auspices of the Federal Press Office of the Bonn government.

Miss Strauss has studied at the Munich School for Interpreters at Oxford and Cambridge Universities in England and at the University of the Sorbonne in Paris.

From 1954-59 she was assistant to the advertising director of the publication "Das Beste", (The Best of Reader's Digest).

by Mrs. J.W. Wesley

Everyone has been quite busy sowing wheat since the good moisture we received the past weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Wilson and daughter, Denenne of Colorado Springs, Colorado arrived in Happy Friday night to move their furniture to their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Wilson will take the furniture to Colorado Springs in a trailer and plan to return home Sunday or Monday.

Miss Artis Sue Wesley was elected Homecoming Queen of Brownfield High School. She is a senior and the daughter of Elvin and Rose Wesley, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Butch Parker and daughter, Denette, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mig Whitson over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Amerson visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley last Monday.

Attending the Happy homecoming game Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Raford Shipman and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shipman of Hereford, Edna Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and boys of Lubbock. Kay Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Harvey, was crowned homecoming queen.

The children of Mrs. Shaw, mother of Mrs. John Patterson, honored her with a tea on her eightieth birthday recently. Her Sunday school class, consisting of some thirty members, helped to make the afternoon a success.

Mrs. John Patterson visited with Mrs. J. W. Wesley last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evans went to the farm near Adrian and sowed some wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Wilson are owners of a new Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Troye Langston.

Mrs. J. J. Sanford of Waller is visiting with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fort of Canyon.

Mrs. Sanford will remain in Canyon about a month, according to the Forts.

"I Hold the Key" is a wonderful giftbook--especially suitable for birthdays, graduation, Christmas, and other special occasions.

WT Rodeo This Week

Spurs and chaps will be 'a-flyin' tonight and Friday as cowboys bite the dust in the second annual intramural rodeo at West Texas State University.

The WT Block and Bridle club will sponsor the rodeo, which will be held in the Sheriff's Posse arena, east of town.

Events will begin both Thursday and Friday nights at 7:30 o'clock with admission $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Entries for the contest were taken by club members Monday through Wednesday of this week. Approximately 80 entries are expected in this year's competition.

A special match roping contest will be held during both evening performances along with bareback riding, bull riding and calf tying.

Stock for the rodeo will be furnished by the Ratjen Rodeo Company of Happy.

Donations For Olympic Fund

Olympic fund donations collected during the West Texas State University-Texas Western football game reached $158.21.

According to athletic director Frank Kimbrough, the total is considerably higher than the amount collected last year.

Collections were made at various stations near entrances at Buffalo Bowl. Assisting with the collecting were four girls representing WTSU social sororities.

Proceeds will go towards sending the United States Olympic Team to Japan.

Booster Club Time Changed

Meeting time for the Canyon Boosters Club has been changed to 7:30 p.m. every Tuesday evening.

The group has been meeting at 8 p.m., according to Tom Lair president.

Films of previous games are shown each week at the regular meeting.

Finishing Touches

Justice of the Peace, Bill Wilson, was among the Kiwanis Club members who worked last Thursday, Friday and Saturday on the Mrs. C. B. Cable home in the west part of town. The home will be ready for Mrs. Cable and her seven children in the next few weeks, according to Wilson.

Dollar Bill Life About 6 Months

by TROY MARTIN

Not all the money in the bank is negotiable.

James Cole, cashier at First National Bank here, said he sends in about $1,000 worth of mutilated bills about every three or four months.

The old currency is replaced by new bills by the Federal Reserve. Cole said the normal life of a dollar bill is about six months.

He said bills get torn, dirty or worn and must be replaced. Two-thirds of a bill is enough to claim the currency's face value.

A dollar bill torn in half is worth just fifty cents.

Strangely enough, he said he sends in many two dollar bills because people just don't like to carry them. Cole says he does not know whether folks think the two dollar bills are unlucky or not.

"They just don't like to carry them," he said.

The larger denomination the bill the longer it lasts in circulation, declared the bank cashier. "That's because they do not circulate as fast as a dollar bill," he explained.

Cole said the bank here seldom gets a $1,000 bill. "We move it as fast as we can," he declared. A bill of that denomination does not circulate well.

Cole revealed that the bank does not now have such a bill on hand. He said $100 bills are about the largest donomination kept here.

Cole said there is somewhat of a coin shortage. It has not become acute in Canyon but it could do so, he said.

He pointed out that he recently ordered 1,000 quarters, and 1,000 dimes from the Federal Reserve and received only half the number ordered.

He said the coin shortage may be a result in part from hoarding of silver coins by speculators who believe the price of silver might advance.

Mostly he thinks it has been caused by publicity. He noted that places of business, upon hearing of an impending shortage, might hoard coins against this shortage. This makes the shortage even more acute, he declared.

WomenBegin Tennis Play

Women's tennis practice is underway at West Texas State University, with a tournament slated Nov. 21 and 22.

Coaching the team is Miss Mary Cooley, physical education instructor.

According to Miss Cooley, West Texas State and Amarillo Junior College will co-sponsor the November Golden Spread Indoor Invitational Tennis Tournament.

Tournament play will take place at Amarillo JC. Teams expected to attend include Abilene Christian College, Howard County Junior College; Wayland Baptist College; Lubbock Christian College; Hardin-Simmons University and Odessa College.

Representing West Texas State will be doubles players Polly Lain, Spearman junior and a returning letterman, and Sharon Howell, Borger freshman.

Playing singles will be Ann Dunivan, Amarillo junior, and one other player to be chosen from the WT team.

WT players are Miss McLain, Miss Howell, Mary Lofgren, Amarillo sophomore; Miss Dunivan; Nancy Smith, Amarillo junior; and Sydna Taylor, Fritch sophomore.

"Most of our tennis season comes in the spring," said Miss Cooley. "We will probably be entering tournaments at Texas University, North Texas State and Hardin-Simmons, and will arrange some home-and-home matches."

Student Election Results Announced

Results of student run-off elections have been compiled by Student Association workers at West Texas State University.

Run-off balloting was done last Thursday by voting machines at the Student Union building.

Preliminary balloting took place last Tuesday with Joe Elms of Kerrick elected Student Association vice-president.

Elected for the fifth post of freshman senator was Gene Storrs of Amarillo. Other freshman senators include Randy Carver, Hereford, Linda Dooley, Lubbock, Tom Jones, Vega; and Wayne Woodruff, Odessa.

Senior class president is Lanny McCrary, Amarillo; vice-president, Mike Milligan, Dumas; and secretary-treasurer, Donna Kirk, Duncanville.

Junior class president is Gary Frazier, Wichita Falls; vice-president, Miss Roy Thompson, Floral Park, New York; and secretary-treasurer, Beverly Peck, Edna.

Sophomore class president is A. J. Dye, Roaring Springs; vice-president, Judy Sandlin, Crowell; and secretary-treasurer, Rita Stubblefield, Hale Center.

Freshman class president is Ronald Willcox, Houston; vice-president, Janeen Glenn, Amarillo; and secretary-treasurer Sidney McCollum, Amarillo.

Buffs Trample Eagles, 21 - 13

BY LYNZA CARADINE

Daring and dangerous was the Buffalo football unit that lowered its horns and pounded for history Saturday night.

And a fitting climax to a series was West Texas State University's 21-13 victory over North Texas State University at Denton.

It was WT's first win over North Texas on the Eagle gridiron and the Buff's final chance to break the jinx.

Missouri Valley Conference member North Texas drops WT from future schedules after 12 games played since the 1923 opener. West Texas State won but three of the 12 battles.

Penning other history for Buffalo record books Saturday were fullback Russell Mundy and Tony Waters.

Mundy shook loose to score his first touchdown since his sophomore year. The thundering bulldozer back actually scored twice but had one marker called back.

Mundy totaled 103 yards on 19 carries for a 5.4 average.

Waters grabbed the spotlight with a beautiful 63-yard punt return, longest run of any kind for the Buffs this season. He also returned a second quarter punt 52 yards.

Senior quarterback Bill Bundy expertly maneuvered the maroon squad throughout the game, as 6,000 fans watched and shivered on the chilly, windswept evening.

Bundy unleashed an aerial attack to account for 65 total yards, as 8 or 15 missiles hit the target.

Most impressive was Bundy's play-calling. Twice he saved WT ball possession with fourth down keepers. A third down punt from the WT 5 put the ball 40-yards out to the 45 in another situation, but the maneuver proved fatal seconds later as North Texas scored.

The most important play, however, came prior to West Texas State's first touchdown when Bundy, on a fourth down and two yards to go situation handed the ball to halfback Dennis Flanagan for 7. WT scored on the next down.

Buff defense was the heighth of finesse but glowed more brightly during the first half stalemate.

Buff statistics during the initial period topped any attempts provided by the Eagle eleven, with the exception of the scoring bracket.

Trailing 7-0 at halftime, the Buffs had outrushed North Texas 60 to 46 yards, out-passed them 43-13 and had 9 first downs to 3 for NTS.

Lone scoring for North Texas was timed at 5:50 in the opening quarter.

The Eagles received WT's third down punt at the 45 and A. D. Whitfield ran for 31 yards. Two plays later quarterback Hank Cooper completed a pass to Mike Bailey 11 yards for the touchdown. Allan Bennett kicked the conversion.

Tightening up at this point was the Buff defensive unit that refused to allow the Eagles to control the ball but briefly during the rest of the beginning period.

No scoring came from the maroon squad although rambling Russ Mundy kept a steady yard-gaining pace along with yard-mileage coming on Bundy's completed passes. The period died with WT scoreless though statistic-rich.

Back into play in quarter three a restless West Texas State unit decided it was time to score. Holding North Texas on downs, the Buffaloes claimed the ball at the 45.

Mundy pounded for 2, Bundy sailed one to Butch Walterscheid for 6, and Mundy hopped over center for one. Bundy gambled on a keeper and made the first down.

Two penalties could have been fatal to the driving squad on the series.

Penalty one made it first down, 19-yards, when Earl West turned around left end for 4 and Bundy threw again to Walterscheid for 16 and a first.

Mundy carried next but the second penalty made it first down, 15-yards. Bundy faked, kept, and spinned for 18 yards, then Mundy grabbed 2. West hit for 4, Mundy for 2, then Bundy, mentally-alert and gambling again, pitched to Flanagan cutting around right end for 7 yards.

West cleared the goal strips on the next down, with 4:13 remaining in third quarter play. Roy Armentrout boomed a good kick to tie it at 7-7.

Two more scoring drives were instigated by the tough Buffalo offense. Three touchdowns came in a 5-minute action filled period.

Earl West scampered for 6 yards to open the second touchdown series, with Flanagan dashing for 2 and Mundy getting to the NT 2.

The next play was a called-back touchdown by Mundy and 5 yards were stepped off against WT. At the NT 7, West tucked the pigskin under his arm and charged over. Armentrout eyed the goal and booted good, WT 14-NT 7 was the score with the time running out in the third quarter.

Early in fourth quarter play West Texas State's outstanding defensive corner man, Gene Browning, made bitter enemies of the Eagle eleven by picking off Cooper's pass at the WT 28.

Browning, playing with a bad ankle, forgot to hobble as he hot-footed it 46 yards to the NT 26.

Miracle-man Mundy took a pitch around right end and left North Texas defenders strewn all down the field as he lowered his head and bullied 26 yards to touchdown territory.

Golden - toed Armentrout booted another for the 21-7 finale.

Eagles caused a few jagged nerves four downs later by scoring a second TD on a pass from Corkey Boland to A. J. Waight. A 2-point try failed and WT was 21-NT 13. The Eagles failed to score again but kept Buff defenders on guard the rest of the game.

Honors in the defensive side belong to Tony Waters who saved possible scoring nailing Whitfield on a long opening-play run. Waters made several key grabs.

Other defensive stars included Larry Patterson, guard, Browning, and remainder of the Buff unit.

Halfback David Shellabarger's surprise pass-interception on the final play of the game added up to 55 yards and a night's worth of excitement.

No rest was available throughout the entire game for either team. Even a 21-13 margin allowed the West Texas Staters no rest as the final period was dominated with an unpredictable passing barrage from sophomore Eagle quarterback Corkey Boland.

Final stats totaled 197 Buff rushing yards and 65 yards passing. North Texas rushed for 74 and passed for 124.

WT had 16 first downs, NT 11. The Buffs punted 6 times, averaged 31.8; North Texas punted 7 times for 44.6.

Buffalo pass receiving was divided almost equally among three receivers. Gilliland caught 2 for 27 yards, Walterscheid 2 for 22 and impressive performer Ted Wheeler, sophomore end, snatched 2 for 18.

Buffalo gridmen go against a top-rated opponent this Saturday night when they face Memphis State at 7:30 p.m. in Buffalo Bowl.

West Texas State will be seeking a third season win against 2 losses.

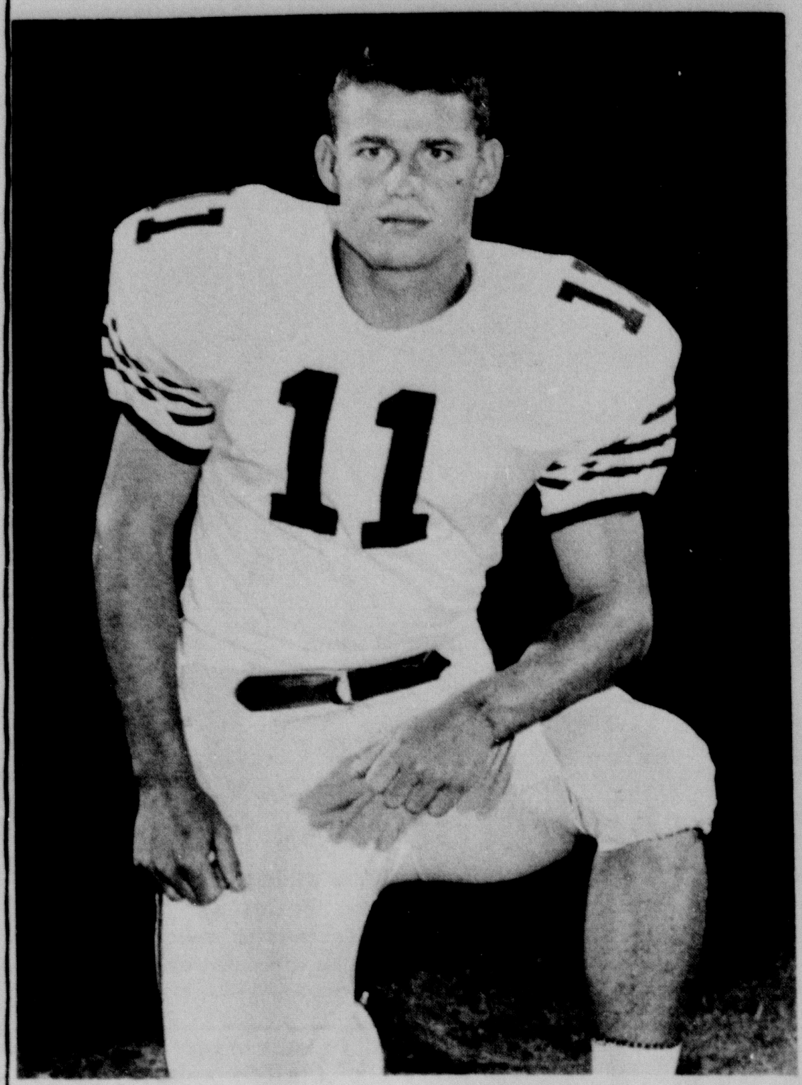
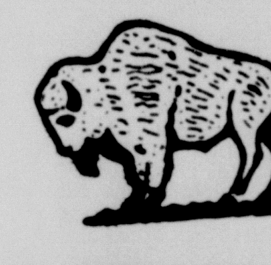
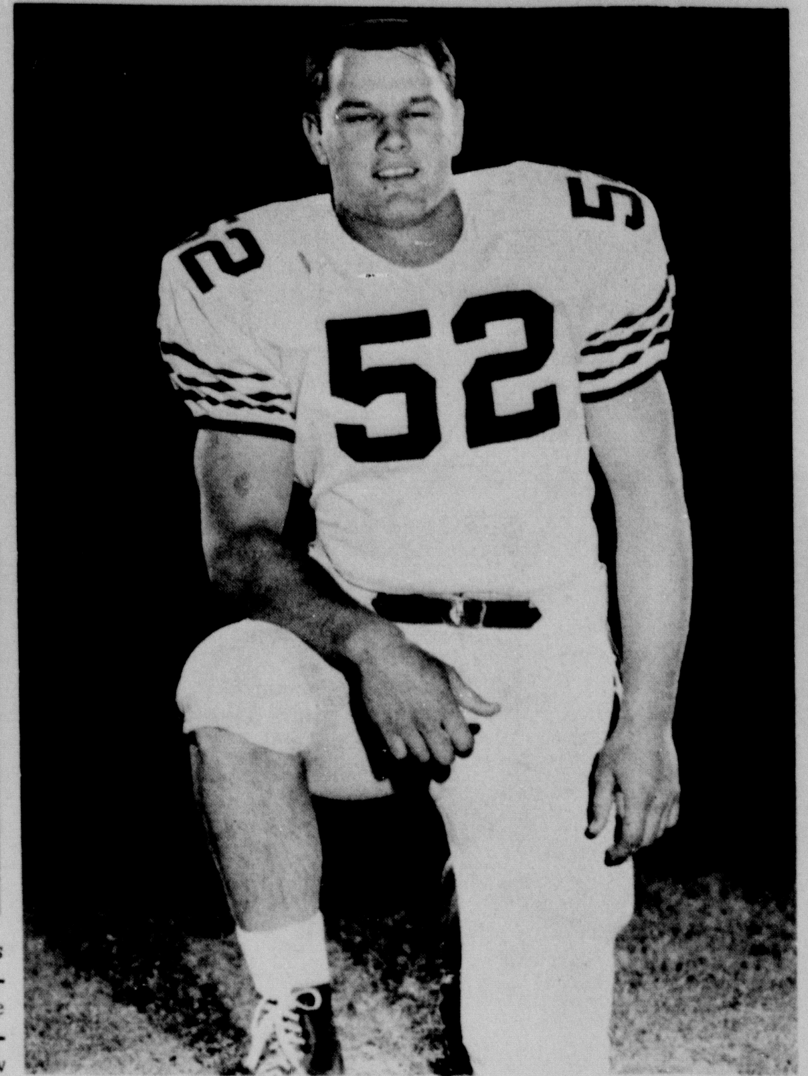
AMARILLO BACKS THE BUFFS



NO. 11. . .RONNIE MANKIN. . . QUARTERBACK. . .5'11,165. . . Sophomore from Coleman, Texas. Ronnie came along very fast in spring drills and started the Alumni Game at defensive quarterback. A good runner and average passer, Ronnie drew the defensive role as left safety and performed with excellence until a shoulder injury took him out of duty temporarily. Ronnie re-injured the shoulder against Texas Western, hopes to be back in action soon. His early season performances have been outstanding. His playing could be of key importance to the remainder of the WT season. He is a sure tackler, smart player, knows how to hustle and is willing to learn.

Ronnie made All-District and All-Area teams in high school, participated in football, basketball and track. Hobbies or outside interests include hunting and fishing. Ronnie is married, majors in business and would like to coach or get into the business field following graduation.





NO. 68 . .LARRY PATTERSON . . .GUARD. . .6'1, 181. . .Senior from Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania. Wears jersey number 68 this season. Larry was converted to a center and had a fine spring at the position. He returned to the guard spot this fall and proved it to be his element, adding depth and strength at the right guard slot. Larry has shown maturity and confidence in the last two outings, suddenly coming into his own and playing outstanding defensive ball against Texas Western and North Texas State. He joined the praise-list of head coach Joe Kerbel. Patterson could become one of the top team defensive men before the season ends and is being counted on for some tough playing in games to come.

Larry has been a varsity member two seasons. He made Honorable Mention, Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League, in high school. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at WT and is in the "T" Club. Larry majors in elementary education and plans to teach after graduation.

NO. 56. . .DOC ROWELL. . . CENTER. . .6'2, 215. . .Senior from Odessa, Texas. Another two letter winner, Doc has shared center duties with Charlie Daves and has turned in a bang-up job. He took over first-string duties against North Texas State after Daves was injured in the previous game. Doc's main forte is red dogging from his center linebacker slot. Doc is an untiring worker, never lets up. Smart player on the field and fine all-around football player, Doc has added double-power on the center slot.

Doc was named All-District for two seasons in football and All-City for 2 years. He made All-District catcher in baseball 3 years. He played fullback at Odessa Ector High. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and the "T" Club at WT. Doc is married, names singing as an outside interest. He majors in physical education and plans a teaching and coaching career.

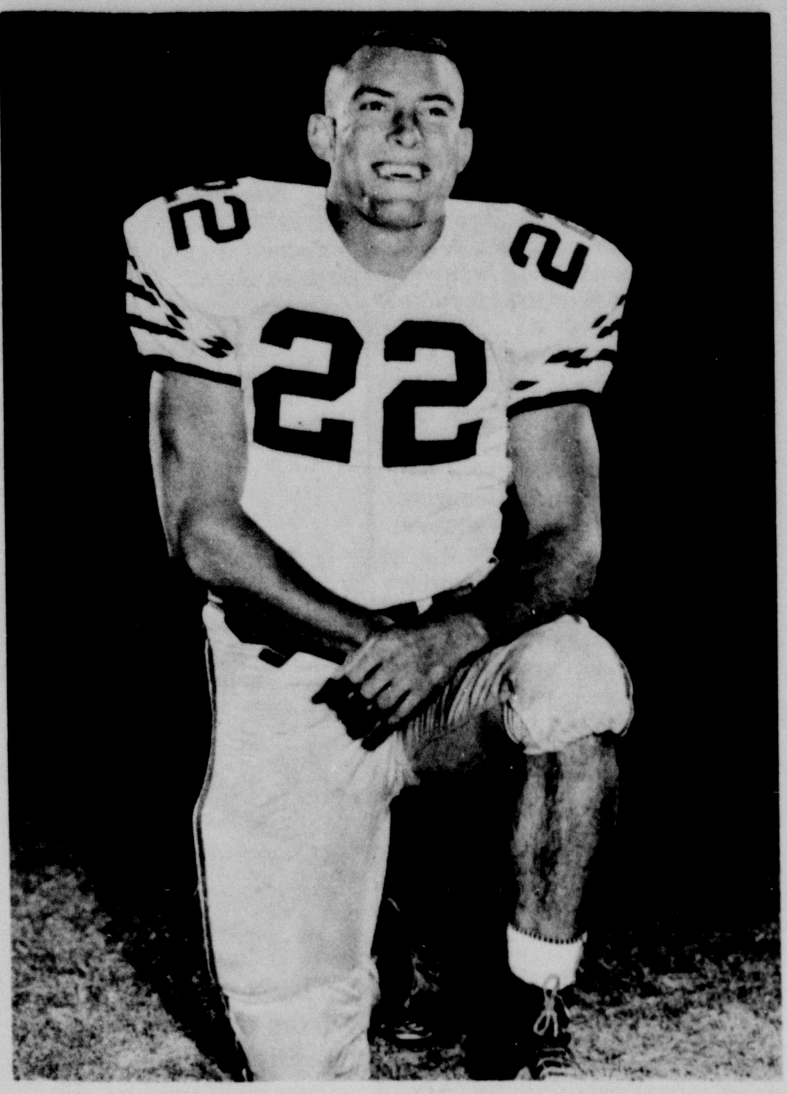
HOMECOMING

NO. 22. . .JERRY KING. . . HALFBACK. . .5'11, 170. . . Senior from Olney, Texas. Jerry has earned two letters at WT, mainly playing defensive halfback. He led the 1963 squad in kickoff returns and caught 4 passes. Jerry is a good tackler, reads plays and plays the ball well. He has good speed and does a good job from his right corner slot. Although his duty this season has been chiefly defensive, Jerry is an offensive threat and ready to go when needed. He has a fine season ahead of him.

Jerry made All-District honors three years and All-Area Honorable Mention his junior and senior hs years. Honor student in high school, Jerry was also named to Hall of Fame, was Student Council president and won the All-Around Athletic Award. He set a 440-yard dash record in District, 41.2 and in Regional, 50.5. A member of Kappa Alpha fraternity at WT and "T" Club, Jerry majors in physical education and plans to coach and teach, is married.



NO. 67. . .TERRY FUNK. . . GUARD. . .6', 195. . .Junior from Umbarger, Texas. Terry is a younger brother of Dory, Jr. He has a lot to live up to in the Funk tradition. Terry came along fast last year, earned a letter. He won a starting berth after fine performances in drills last spring and this fall. Terry suffered a mild concussion in a car accident while hunting, missed a game but is now back in the lineup. He has a lot of fight, plays tough ball and is a good trapper and tackler. Plenty of speed and a hard-worker, Terry has been valuable in the first ballgames and is counted on for more of the same.

Terry is a local product, graduated from Canyon High. He majors in speech at West Texas State, but would like a career in coaching.

CowboysBrand Longhorns,32-6

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

Happy Cowboys roped, tied and branded the Lazbuddie Longhorns Friday night 32-6 in the first district tilt for both ball clubs.

The Cowboys showed western-style speed as they put the first lasso around the horns of the Lazbuddie herd in the opening minutes of the game.

Happy took the kickoff and maneuvered the ball into Longhorn territory before the herd was ready for the chase.

Jim McManigal, senior fullback, was given the branding iron for the first time as he carried the skin from the 6 over the goal.

Quarterback Randy Johnson, sophomore, kicked the ball between the posts for the conversion. The score stood 7-0.

The Longhorns seemed dazed by the rapid move of the Cowboys and late in the first quarter Happy again handled the ball for the second calf throwing.

Tom Moudy, remembering a broken jaw received in the Lazbuddie-Happy tilt last year, was credited with the second Cowboy talley. He took the ball on the 1 and plunged through the middle putting the score 13-0.

Happy continued to ride herd on the struggling Longhorns. On first down following the Happy kickoff, Lazbuddie's Joe Jennings took to the air. Wayne Stevens stretched high for the interception and Happy took over on their own 48.

McManigal handled the ball during the drive which put the ball to rest on the Lazbuddie 1 yard line. On fourth and 1, a lateral from Joe Johnson to Moudy was fumbled and the Longhorns recovered on their own 20.

But the steers continued to be plagued by a rough-riding bunch of cowboys, and were forced to punt on the 26.

Mark Maynard took the punt and returned to the Lazbuddie 34 before he was brought down by Calvin Embry, senior tackle.

Moudy carried on the first for a gain of 7 and McManigal added 2 for third down and 1 to go.

A pass from quarterback Gary Culp to Moudy added another 19 yards to the drive and the ball rested on the 5 with a first and goal to go.

McManigal was called on for the score and with a run around right end Happy led 19-0 when a pass from Culp to McManigal fell incomplete.

Happy kicked off again, but Lazbuddie was held on their own 35 and thrown for a loss on the fourth down. Happy took over on the Longhorn 27 when McManigal intercepted a pass intended for Lazbuddie's Mac Holt.

The passing arm of Gary Culp and the catching arm of Wayne Stevens made the perfect combination for the Cowboy's fourth talley. On first and 10, Stevens caught a pass over his head and jotted downfield for the touchdown.

Randy Johnson kicked the conversion, and the half ended showing a score of 26-0.

The Cowboys came back fired up in the second half to lead the scoring again.

Maynard took the kickoff and ran to the 43. Moudy carried for a gain of 1 on the first and Randy Johnson was handed the ball for a 14 yard run.

The sophomore quarterback pulled several surprise punches on the Longhorns and carried again to the Lazbuddie 7 and a gain of 36 yards. From the 7 he skirted around right end for the touchdown. The kick attempt failed, and Happy led 32-0.

Fumbles plagued both clubs during the third quarter, each losing the ball in crucial positions.

The lone Longhorn talley came early in the fourth quarter as the Lazbuddie eleven took over on their own 17 following a fumble by the Cowboys.

John Mabry led the ground offense for Lazbuddie by romping from the 17 to the Happy 26. He carried again for a gain of 3 and Lloyd Bradshaw carried to the Happy 17 for a gain of 6.

Quarterback Joe Jennings went through the middle for the first and Mabry added 2 yards more to the ground attack.

Bradshaw gained 7 for Lazbuddie and Mabry added 7 more before Jennings crossed the goal line. The run for extra points failed and the Longhorns were branded 32-6.

Neither team penetrated during the closing minutes of the tilt.

Happy led all the way with 13 first downs to the Longhorns 7. Happy tried 9 passes and completed 4. One pass was a 26 yard touchdown pass from Culp to Stevens.

Lazbuddie took to the air 12 times but completed only 1 for 16 yards.

Happy stole two passes from the Longhorns ; one through the outstretched arms of Wayne Stevens and one by the sticky fingers of fullback McManigal.

McManigal carried the ball 26 times for 151 yards putting his game average at 5.7 yards. Moudy carried 10 times for 23 yards and an average of 2.3 yards. Randy Johnson showed sparkling running ability with four carries for a total of 63 yards. He kicked two conversions and made one touchdown run.

Sophomore halfback David Womack carried once for 4 yards late in the fourth quarter.

Happy faces Bovina Friday night in Cowboy Corral for the second district game at 7:30 p.m.

Jack Walker Heads Homecoming Board

BY LYNZA CARADINE

Homecoming has been a big concern for Dr. Jack Walker of West Texas State University.

Dr. Walker, director of radio and television at WTSU, has been Homecoming Committee Chairman during the past 12 years.

His work with Homecoming plans for this year began when last year's activities were barely over.

"The initial preparation for 1964 Homecoming was made last year the week following '63 Homecoming," said Dr. Walker.

"The Homecoming Committee met to go over the results of the activities, to discuss the things that went wrong and to bring up anything that might make the next one better. We wanted to do this while it was still fresh on our minds."

"We try to choose a time with a good ballgame date," said Walker. This year's Homecoming, which is Saturday, was checked through the football schedule and athletic director Frank Kimbrough.

"Homecoming must be a self-supporting thing here on campus," said Walker. "It is one activity that absolutely depends on the work of the people involved, and they must be interested in it."

According to Walker, the only way the Homecoming Committee can raise funds for the affair is through the Homecoming dance.

This year the Student Senate budgeted $400 to help defray the expenses.

Each year some money is set aside to feed 1,000 guests who will be on campus. Guests include visiting groups appearing in the parade and special dignitaries invited by the University.

"This year we are estimating Homecoming attendance to total about 10,000 people. This is an estimate of the people who would not ordinarily be here."

According to Walker, up until about 5 years ago Homecoming was a co-operative thing on the part of the faculty members. The faculty would invite the ex-students back for one special day. Faculty members would buy beeves and barbecue them for ex-students.

"One year," said Walker, "the faculty decided to simply set aside one day for Homecoming, but not have a barbecue or parade, just invite the students back."

"That was a very unpopular move. After that, we started planning things again. Now Homecoming is a catered affair."

Many activities have been arranged through Walker and committee members. On the Homecoming Committee are Buff Morris, Dr. Paige Carruth, Bill Lee, Donna Marburger, Gus Miller, Boone McClure, Dr. Ruth Lowes, Zell SoRelle, Vaughn Vandergriff and Larry Elms.

Through the committee members, arrangements have been made for decorations, the parade, registration, barbecue, dances, social get-togethers, an assembly and various other gatherings.

"We would like very much to have Canyon townspeople participate in the activities," said Walker. "One of the ways would be to put up bunting, or do whatever they can to join in with us."

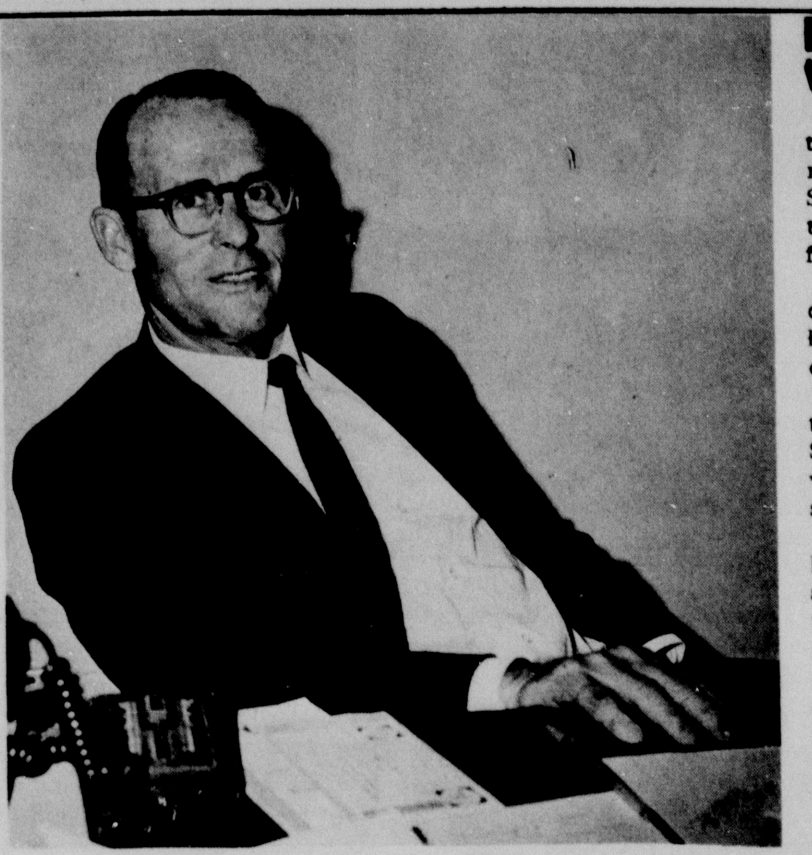
"We appreciate very much the things they have done already," Walker said.

For the Homecoming parade, which begins at 3:30 p.m. Saturday, some 11 bands and 14 floats are to participate as well as Sheriff's Posses.

Parade will begin on a west portion of Fourth Avenue to comply with a city ordinance.

Visiting bands are to arrive Saturday morning and WTSU band director, Gary Garner, will work with them so that they can all perform together during pre-game and halftime ceremonies at Saturday's football game.

Homecoming is mostly a matter of hoping things go well as far as Walker is concerned now. With the committee working under his supervision, things appear to be going as well as possible.



DR. JACK WALKER

Walker, meanwhile, has been busy also teaching his classes in survey, announcing, writing, directing and producing in radio and television.

He received his BS and MA degrees at West Texas State University and Ph. D. from the University of Denver.

He also graduated from the National Broadcasting Company Institute in Hollywood, California.

Walker has written numerous short stories and articles for various publications, with most recent articles appearing in Texas Parade. Most of his writings have been about the Southwest.

Walker's wife is an English instructor at Amarillo College. They have one son, Bill, a student at WTSU, who is majoring in mathematics and physics and plans to teach.

UTL Contest Set Oct. 27

Canyon High School marching band will compete in the University Interscholastic League contest Oct. 27 in Buffalo Bowl, according to Band director Gary Zook.

Zook said the band will be the first AAA band to march Tuesday morning.

Contest begins at 9 a.m. and will end at 5 p.m. with Class B bands taking the field first. Class A, Class AA and Class AAA bands will follow in the morning session. Class AAAA and junior high bands will compete in the afternoon.

Twirling contest will also be held during the day at the stadium in Canyon.

Canyon majorettes Beth Jarrett, Sherre Hare and Linda Grimes will perform as an ensemble and compete in solos.

NewsReading Workshop Set

A series of class demonstrations and conferences in news reading will be held in Canyon Schools Oct. 26-29 as part of the in-service training program for teachers.

Huelyn Laycock, Superintendent of Schools and Mrs. Ocoee Holt, Supervisor, are in charge of arrangements.

Miss Mary Waddle, consultant from the Department of School Services, Wesleyan University, will conduct the demonstrations and conferences.

Miss Waddle's services have been made available by Wesleyan University as a contribution to the nationwide demand for improved instruction in reading, citizenship and current affairs. Wesleyan is a non-denominational, privately supported university founded in 1831 and located in Middletown, Connecticut.

Miss Waddle received her B.S. in Education from Wittenburg College, Springfield, Ohio, her M.A. from Columbia University, and has done advanced work in reading at Northwestern University.

TUESDAY DOUBLE GUNN BROS STAMPS AT BELLAH'S

CHS Art Classes Give Students Big Benefits

Slowly the piece of clay begins to take shape. The drawing on the large board takes form, and the jewelry is molded for wear.

Paper, rubber cement and paint has resulted in several art projects for the students in the Canyon High School art I class. Mrs. Charlotte Brantley, art instructor at CHS, has directed the 20 art students in the art course with design and texture receiving emphasis. The Collages, which is the name for the rubber cement-paint idea, gave the students an opportunity to carry out their own theme concerning emotions.

The students paint, draw, pound or contemplate their individual works of art during the course of an hour and continue their labor.

They ask questions, erase, redraw, but each bends his head and constantly concentrates on his personal endeavor.

The class is one of several art courses at Canyon High School taught by Mrs. Royal Brantley.

Mrs. Brantley, back in Canyon following a year's leave of absence, directs three art classes daily. Each class begins on various levels of art development, but each works in the direction of perfection.

In the first year art class, students begin their art education with work concentrated on design and texture.

One of the first projects for the year was the use of water color and rubber cement, mixed with individual imagination.

"I told the students they were to pick an emotion and express it with design. Some of them were very good. They used the rubber cement and then used the water color to get the proper design," Mrs. Brantley explained.

In a project prior to the design series, Mrs. Brantley instructed the students in Collages.

Class members were to pick a theme and develop a series of ideas expressing the theme. The use of Collages is to express texture.

The day continues for Charlotte Brantley as she begins the art II class at 10:30 each morning.

The class is divided into three fields: ceramics, jewelry and textiles.

Throughout the class period, students bang, draw, hammer or saw various materials for their own projects.

Seated in the class, one boy shapes an owl with clay, a girl beats out a piece of copper, another draws a picture which will appear with a cloth background. All are intent on the form, shape and final product they will make during coming class periods.

"I assigned work for the entire semester, therefore, each student can work at his own rate of speed. They picked a project and will work on it all semester," Mrs. Brantley commented.

The main idea for the class is design, and each uses the class period to develop their own views concerning design as they imagine it.

The final class in art each day for Mrs. Brantley is painting and drawing. In this class most of the students are advanced artists.

In the painting and drawing class at Canyon High School, students worked last week on a special light-emphasis drawing. John Haynes, center, poses for the group while Mrs. Royal Brantley, instructor, holds the light. Students drawing are Tony Herrera, Ricky Michael and Al Sternenberg.

Projects for the class vary according to their ability and interests.

Charlotte Brantley has been teaching for nine years. She graduated from Southwest Texas State with a degree in art and a minor in music. She received her masters degree at West Texas State in 1959 in music with a minor in art.

Last year she moved with her family to Indiana University where she taught at the IU demonstration school.

This mother of four children taught in Austin and Kerrville before her teaching career in Canyon began four years ago.

She came to work with the Canyon Public School system in the junior high and the high school. She taught both in both buildings for two years, before she moved entirely to the high school level.

She actively supports projects for these young artists which will encourage their work in the field of art.

She presently is on the active committee of the Northwest Texas Regional Exhibition, which will be held in February and March of next year.

The scholastic exhibition will be sponsored by White & Kirk of Amarillo and will feature art work from 22 Panhandle and West Texas counties.

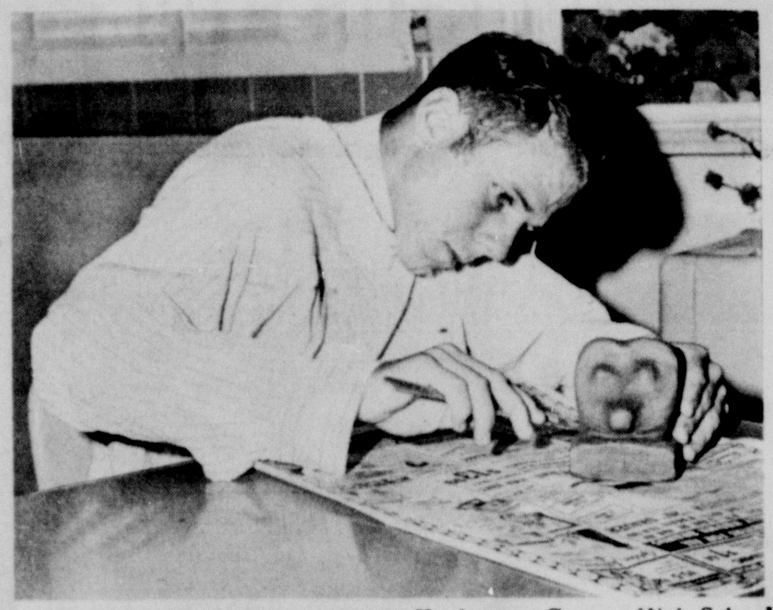
Students in high schools will compete in the regional exhibition and winners in the region will compete in the national show.

Canyon students in the art II class and the drawing and painting course will enter exhibits for the contest.

"If several of the students have things that can be entered we will enter them. We don't work for exhibits. But if someone has something that can be shown we will enter it," the instructor said.

So daily more than 50 high school students learn the basic steps in art. They are taught to appreciate art and still develop their own style.

"Art is an individual thing. I simply try to have the students express themselves the way that is natural for them," Mrs. Brantley explained her technique.



James Cabe is shown in an art II class at Canyon High School working on a ceramic project. Cabe, along with the 15 other students in the class, is able to work at his own speed in the special jewelry-textile-ceramic class conducted by Mrs. Royal Brantley of Canyon. Each class member works at his own speed on a project for the entire semester.

Scout Troop 7 Names Patrols

Patrol officers were elected at the Monday afternoon meeting of Girl Scout troop 7 at the First Methodist Church.

Patrol I elected Sheryl Pittard, Barbara Davis, Armetha Lindley and Sheila Wemkin as officers. Patrol II chose Cindy Stoker, Debbie White, Debby Wright, and Martha Echols, as officers. Kay Nester, Paula Read, Glenda Bender and Cathy Albers will serve as officers for Patrol III.

Plans for the coming year were made by the girls, with the assistance of Mrs. Keith Jones, troop leader.

Beauty Shopping At WTSU

WT BEAUTY-Lucretia Newton is a freshman at West Texas State this fall. She is from Shallowater, majors in elementary education and would like to teach and later become a counselor. Lucretia lists some of her "likes" as football, the color blue and her favorite class is psychology. When asked how she likes WT, Lucretia honestly exclaims, "I love it!", saying she feels the people on campus are extra - friendly. The brown haired beauty is one of the added attractions to be found at the University this year.

Grocers Honored By Mayor

Mayor Clarence Eugene Thompson this week signed a proclamation declaring Oct. 19 to Oct. 31 as "Food is a Bargain Week" in Canyon.

This is a part of a nationwide observance of the weeks. Mayor Thompson's proclamation was designed to honor Canyon retail grocers.

"Thanks to the efficiencies which have been developed by representatives of the food industry," said Mayor Thompson, "the cost of family sustenance is lower today than at any time in recent history.

He said the average American consumer spends the smallest percentage of the family take home income for food--19 cents out of each dollar, as compared with 26 cents in 1947-49."

He noted in the proclamation that the cost for food in this country is the lowest in the world. He said Russians spend 53 percent of their incomes on food.

"The advances in the production, processing and marketing procedures have been of optimum value to the economic and healthful well-being of our citizens," said the mayor "and I am pleased to participate in my official capacity in bringing these contributions to the attention of the public."

Recent guests in the Arvin Triplett home have been Edgar Tilchek of Hereford, Zane Grey of Littlefield, Sharon, Jeannette and Quenton Ely of Amarillo, Mrs. Ray Mickey, Ann Hardaway, Sherman McCarter, Ron Perry and Richmond Graham, all of Canyon.

SoRelle Schedules Homecoming Dances

"We will have music to appeal to everyone at the Homecoming dances," said Zell SoRelle, speech instructor at West Texas State University.

Miss SoRelle is chairman of the dance committee and has been making arrangements for two bands to play at the after-game Homecoming dance Saturday night.

"Two dance bands will play from 9:30 p.m. until 1 a.m. in the Student Union Building," said Miss SoRelle.

"The Sparkles will play fast music and be in the Formal Ballroom. The Emeralds will play slower music and be in the Game Room."

"There will be one intermission. At the intermission, we will have the Rum rollers, who will present a program strictly of folksinging music."

The Rum Rollers include three West Texas State students, Ronnie Gabriel, Charles Wright and Ben Lokey; and one Amarillo student, Billie Woodman. Band instruments include a banjo, two guitars and bass fiddle.

Some of the numbers to be presented during the intermission are "Deliah's Gone", "House of the Rising Sun", "This Land is Your Land" and "The Fox".

"A small stage will be set up for them in the west end of the Formal Lounge," said Miss SoRelle.

Admittance to the dance is $1 per person. The $1 admission will cover both dance groups and people may dance to one or both bands.

Decorations in the Student Union Building are under the supervision of the Student Union Board, whose president is Bill Callarman. Sue Malaney is chairman of the dance decorations committee and Sylvia Poole is chairman of building decorations committee.

Miss SoRelle has also worked in arranging for the Ex-Students Homecoming Ball to be held at Amarillo Country Club Friday night. The dance begins at 9 p.m. and tickets are $2.50 per person.

Miss SoRelle, who is an assistant professor of speech, received both BS and MA degrees at WTSU.

Shannon Tout, left, Kathy Drown and Charlotte Bialkowski are three of many girls in Cousin s Hall dormitory at West Texas State University. But they are a part of the 15 girls living there who traveled long distance to attend WTSU. Shannon is from San Francisco, California and the Phillippines; Kathy, from Holdrege, Nebraska; and Charlotte, from the Panama Canal Zone. The three say they like WT, claim students are friendlier here, find things like the weather and the way people talk most noticably different from what they are accustomed.

Distance No Barrier For University Girls

Charlotte Bialkowski, Kathy Drown and Shannon Tout are just like any other typical West Texas State University freshmen.

But there's one minor thing that makes them just a little unique.

Charlotte, Kathy and Shannon traveled a long way to become students at WTSU.

Charlotte, the quieter of the threesome and a sincere, intelligent girl, is from the Panama Canal Zone. She is majoring in modern languages with emphasis on German. She would like to become a secretary.

"I was born and raised in the Canal Zone," said Charlotte. "The climate is very different there. The temperature is almost always in the 80's."

Charlotte says she enjoys the Panhandle, but is a bit doubtful about winter. "I've never seen snow," she stated.

"I'm going to freeze all winter!" she laughed.

Charlotte decided to come to West Texas for two main reasons. Her parents are originally from Texas and she has relatives in this area.

She made the trip to Canyon via boat from the Canal Zone to New Orleans and by bus the remainder of the way.

Kathy Drown, alternately quiet and active, has mischevious eyes and medium-long hair. She is from Holdrege, Nebraska.

"Why did I come to West Texas State? I wanted to go away from home and I wanted to come to Texas," she said. "My father and a U-Haul brought me."

Kathy is a journalism major and is taking journalism at the WTSU publications.

"People talk funny here," Kathy observed, "but they are much friendlier."

Things she especially notices as different from Nebraska are that "there aren't many trees" and "the wind blows".

Witty, active and continually on-the-go is Shannon Tout, presently from San Francisco, California, and originally from the Phillippines.

Shannon, also a journalism major, is thinking about changing to secondary education with a major in biology.

Shannon came to WTSU for one main reason. "My father is in the Navy and we've moved a lot. I've never had a place to really call home. My folks attended West Texas State and I have grandparents here. The Panhandle has always been like home to me--so I just came to school here."

"Besides," laughed Shannon, "I've always liked tall boys and there seems to be an abundance here."

"What's different here?. . . . . . .Let's see, what is different here. . .?" mumbled Shannon, in answer to a question. "Well, you don't have a rainy season," she said, "and it gets cold."

"And everyone speaks English! And people dress differently--the clothes, like cowboy boots, buckles, are worn instead of ivy leagues."

Shannon, like Kathy, agreed that people here talk differently. She also agreed that people were friendlier.

Charlotte, Kathy and Shannon are only three of many girls at WTSU. But they are a little different--they came a long way to go to classes here.

West Texas State University's thirty-four freshman footballers making the trip to New Mexico Military Institute game at Roswell Saturday received an unexpected compliment. Frosh coach Jim Ostrander reported that the manager of Roswell's West Highway House, where the team stayed, said the WT boys were the "best-mannered boys that ever stayed in the motel". The Frosh spent Saturday night there, returned to the campus Sunday.

Clubs And Classes Meet In Individual Reunions

Clubs and class reunions, scheduled during West Texas State University Homecoming, have been arranged by Vaughn Vandergriff.

On the reunion calendar are the Silver Anniversary of Class of '39 and reunions of classes of 1937-41, 1947-51 and 1957-61.

Club meetings include Women's PE Majors, Brick Lounge, McCaslin Hall; Buffalo Gals, Kitchen Lounge, McCaslin, both slated at 10:15 a.m. Saturday.

Other 10:15 a.m. meetings will be held for the four women's social sororities on campus and the five social fraternities.

An All-Green social reunion will be held in the Hudspeth Hall Lounge.

Numerous University departments will have open house between 10 a.m. and 12 a.m.

Girl Scouts

Girl Scout Troop 7 met Monday afternoon at the First Methodist Church. Sheryl Pittard and Barbara Davis had the opening exercises. Plans were made for a Halloween party. Leaders present were Mrs. Keith Jones, Mrs. A. W. Lair and Miss Sharon Vance.

Life Insurance Sessions Held

Third session of five scheduled for the Life Insurance Institute will be next Wednesday at West Texas State University.

"Simple Programming" is the session topic to be presented by Jerry Little, agency manager of American General Life in Amarillo.

Meetings are held from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in the Administration Building auditorium.

Featured Wednesday in the second session was Andy Behrends, agency manager for Travelers Insurance, who spoke on "Prospecting".

Meetings began Oct. 7 at the institute, jointly sponsored by WTSU and Amarillo Association of Life Underwriters. Other sponsors are the Amarillo and Canyon Chambers of Commerce, U. S. Small Business Administration and Amarillo General Agents and Managers Conference.

Each participant in the sessions will receive a certificate from WTSU.

Walter Graham has returned from Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he attended the Wyoming Hereford Ranch Sale Friday of last week and Berry's sale, Monday. While in Wyoming, he visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dinwiddie and Mr. and Mrs. Ora Mason, of Laramie.

Miss Rowell Circle K Sweetheart

A stuffing party to continue work on the Circle K Homecoming float will be held tonight, Thursday on the West Texas State campus.

The party is for Circle K members and guests and will begin at 7 p.m. in the Boiler Building on campus.

Dress will be work clothes and the party will end at 10 p.m.

Edith Rowell, sophomore of Hale Center, was named club sweetheart at a meeting this week. Janet King, senior from Amarillo, was named as attendant.

Two new members were approved for membership this week by active members. Gary Stanford and Larry Treadwell, both freshmen, were accepted into the organization.

City Dads Discuss 2 Ordinances

Canyon city commissioners passed an amendment to the present fire ordinance on a first reading Monday night.

The amendment will put heavier restrictions in fire zones one and two in the city, Dewey Bryant, city manager, said.

In other action at the regular meeting Monday, commissioners also passed an ordinance on the second reading requiring homeowners who do the electrical work in a dwelling to live in that dwelling for at least six months.

Both ordinances must be read three times before they are passed officially.

Commissioners also voted to issue a permit allowing horses in the city limits. Charles A. Hester requested the permit to place horses in the northeast quarter of Block 20 in the Heller Addition. Hester lives at 2411 Twelfth Avenue. The permit will allow five shetland ponies and three colts on the property.

FFA National Convention

Canyon High School Future Farmers of America members left Monday afternoon to attend the national FFA convention in Kansas City being held this week. The boys will return Saturday from the week-long conference. Attending from here are Rodney Myrick, sponsor, Bill Richey, Kyle Powers and George Cox. Carroll Duncan, high school FFA instructor, far right, gives the group final words of advice as they prepare to leave.

County Agent's Column

The growing season is about over for the year 1964. Frost was easily found early Tuesday morning. Cotton could have used another two or three weeks of growing weather. Immature heads are quite common in grain sorghum fields. The severity of the frost cannot yet be determined. It is my guess that tender plants will show frost damage quite easily but that the field crops will not be killed.

* * *

Noah Amason who lives at 2105 3rd Avenue in Canyon is an apple grower with some fame. One of his trees located in his beautifully landscaped back yard produced four bushels of excellent apples. A sample of five apples from this tree was judged to be among the best exhibited at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. Noah and Mrs. Amason seems to have that special skill to produce excellent fruits, vegetables, flowers, and lawns. Their display of African Violets is quite famous.

* * *

Rat populations are increasing around farms and ranches in Randall County. Cool fall weather causes these rodents to seek protection in buildings. Now is a good time to use an approved control measure to keep down the population. Anti-coagulant baits have proven to be very effective when used properly. To be successful with these baits they must be available to rats for a week or more. Continuous feeding over this period is essential if rats are to be killed. These baits are relatively safe if ordinary precautions are used.

* * *

Is it profitable to pump deep water to produce wheat and grain sorghum? This question is being asked many times every day over the central and north Panhandle area. A few wells in Randall County are now being equipped to raise water from under ground stratas more than 600 feet deep. No definite answer can be given to this question. The summary of a research report made in the north plains counties show that above average irrigated yields of wheat and grain sorghum must be made to break even when irrigation development costs exceeds one hundred dollars per acre.

* * *

Close but still one good rain away----is the most common description of the wheat pasture situation. It could be good. Soil moisture conditions at this time will not support rapid growth for very many weeks. Stockmen who heavily stock fields at this time could shortly run out of wheat. The fall run of wheat pasture is most generally the best. The period from now until the latter part of December is the period of best cattle gains.

Cub Scouting

Pack 31

Our thanks to Boy Scout troop 31 for presenting the program at our last pack meeting, Sept. 26. All pack members enjoyed the program done by the Woapalanne Indian Dancers, all members of troop 31.

The next pack meeting will be held Oct. 22, and the new cubmaster, Travis McBride will be in charge. New den mothers will be welcomed at this meeting. They are Mrs. Manley Bryan, Mrs. Burl Brim, Mrs. Gene Johnson, Mrs. P. H. Woolsey, Mrs. Viola Smith and Mrs. L. D. Hunnicutt. Randy Warren of Troop 31 will show films of the Jamboree.

Last week Mrs. Bryan's den placed papier-machie on balloons for Hallowe'en masks.

Members of Mrs. Brim's den were welcomed with an indian welcome sign and went on a stagecoach ride. Refreshments were served by Burl Brim.

Boys in Mrs. Johnson's den had a nail driving contest and were served refreshments by Ricky Johnson.

Mrs. Smith's den served refreshments by Corky Barrett and took a trip to the airport.

Mrs. Hunnicutt's den began a project on scrapbooks several weeks ago. They have sanded, and decorated covers of their books and are now placing varnish on the covers. The next project will be to make tie slides out of wooden forms. Steven Brock served refreshments at the last meeting.

Webelos den of Pack 31 meets with Dick Ziegler on Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m.

Assembly Directed By WT Senate Prexy

"Everything is all set for the Homecoming assembly Thursday (today)," said Student Association president Larry Elms.

Elms, a member of West Texas State University's Homecoming Committee, has been busy arranging the minor and major details for the annual assembly.

Homecoming assembly activity gets underway at 11 a.m. today in the Field House.

Plans have been in the making for the whoop-it-up western affair since last fall at the first Homecoming Committee meeting.

Also beginning today is two days of compulsory wearing western clothing for the WTSU students. WT'ers don boots, stetsons, levis and six-guns or face the law of the old west.

Appearing on the agenda at the assembly will be Bob Izzard, KGNC-television news department head, who will be Master of Ceremonies.

KGNC television, channel 4, will again tape the assembly and it will be shown on that channel at noon.

Also participating in the assembly will be the WT band, Dr. James P. Cornette, Dr. Walker, Eddie Conner of the Ex-Students, Incorporated, homecoming dance chairman Zell SoRelle, barbecue chairman Boone McClure and the WT cheerleaders.

Head football coach Joe Kerbel will introduce members of the varsity football squad and members of his coaching staff.

Highlighting the assembly is the crowning of the Homecoming queen, to be chosen from candidates Sharon Corica, Karen Brewster, Lee Ruth Wiggins, Emma Kay Holland and Ina Messenger.

Assembly ends with playing and singing of the Alma Mater.

All the fears and problems of planning a homecoming assembly ends in a brief but fun-filled period.

And Larry Elms can return to the normal hectic duties of being student body president.

Elms, a junior math major from Silverton, has kept busy since being elected president last spring.

One of his projects was to work at building the Student Association homecoming float this summer. The float, depicting the proposed WT entrance-way, was used during the Randall County 75th Anniversary parade this August.

Other plans that required Larry's attention earlier than most were the student handbook, with many improvements and more information than the old version, and the student social calendar, handed to students during registration.

"It's been busy," exclaimed Larry. Along with senate members or committees or whoever volunteered to help, Larry has worked with such things as freshman orientation, Mom and Dad Day, watermelon feast and activities in the Student Union Building.

Larry joined forces with Roland Black, Chamber of Commerce manager, and two others in soliciting money from Canyon merchants to sponsor parade floats.

This past week and future weeks are filled with student elections, dances and other activities.

Homecoming has taken much time and work recently.

In addition, Larry has spent time working with members of the Student Senate.

Four main projects have been stressed by the Student Senate this year, according to Larry.

"We hope to establish a Student Court system," said Larry, "with the jurisdiction limited to traffic violations on campus only."

"Next we would, in the future, like to establish a governing board for the Student Union Building. On this board we would like to have 5 faculty and 5 student members, with Dr. Paige Carruth as chairman. The board would be the central authority in case of problems arising from the SUB."

"We plan to sponsor the University entrance-way," continued Larry. "In fact, we plan to have the float that we built with the entrance-way on it in front of the SUB this week to try to get donations."

"Our fourth project is the one that a University always seeks to do—promote faculty and student relationships."

Now that pressure from the Homecoming activities are off, Larry plans to turn his attentions to the ideas outlined above.

A tireless worker, Larry also knows how to use his time to do other things. He is a member of the Baptist Student Union, this past weekend joining a BSU group for a BSU convention at Baylor University.

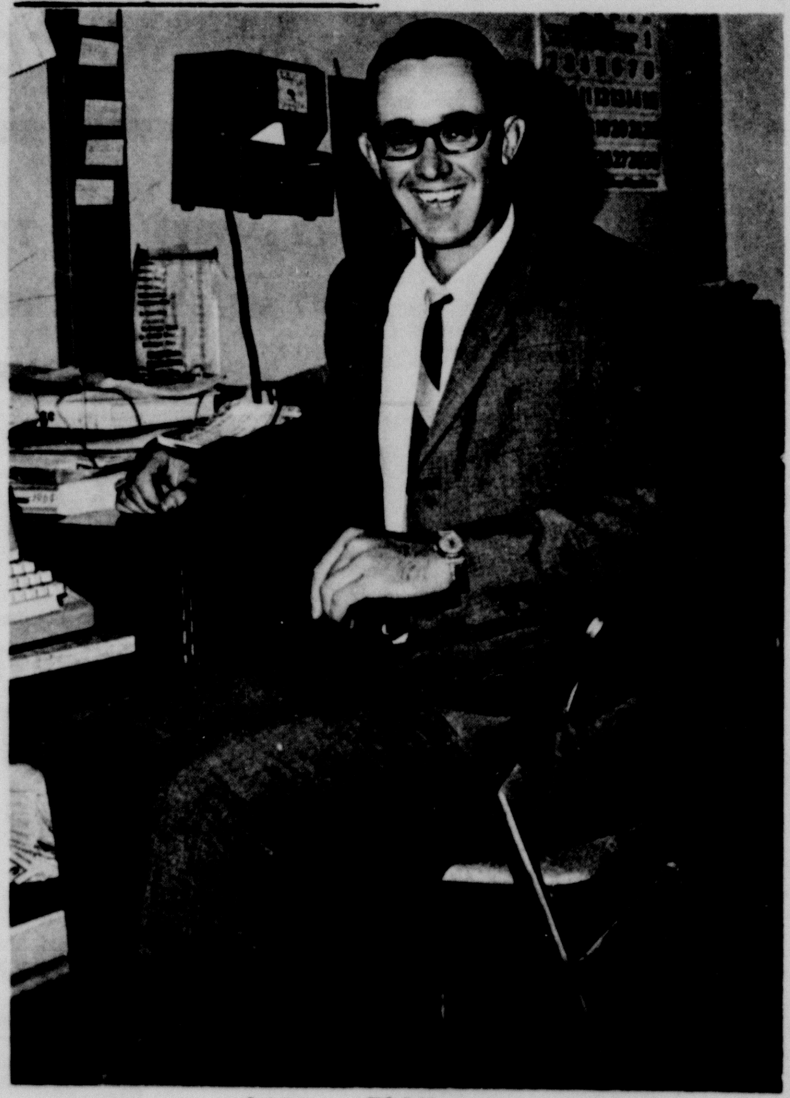
Larry has the usual ideals and goals he wishes to see WTSU attain, to which he adds enthusiastic backing.

"What I would like to see just for a start," Larry said, "is that we attain this stature of a University, through general projects and participation."

"Of course, trying to achieve this involves a lot of things," he sighed "One of the main goals would be to try to create more responsibility and feeling of belonging to a University with students here."

Larry's hopes for the future have yet to be realized. But he is a willing and able worker.

And with workers like Larry Elms at WTSU, one doubts that even the highest goals could not be reached.



LARRY ELMS

K.E. Cofer Dies In Pasadena

A relative of two Canyon women died Monday afternoon in his hometown of Pasadena, Texas.

Funeral services for Kenneth Burl Cofer, 42, were conducted Wednesday at 3 p.m. in LaGrone Funeral Chapel in Canyon.

Burial followed in Dreamland Cemetery.

Rev. Jack Boyett, pastor of the Canyon Calvary Baptist Church, and Rev. Newton Starnes, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Canyon, officiated.

Mr. Cofer, a research chemist for Shell Chemical Company, was the son of Mrs. Effie Cofer of Canyon and the brother of Mrs. R. E. Harrison of Canyon.

He was born Dec. 31, 1921 in Helper, Utah. He was a member of the Baptist church in Pasadena.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hope Cofer, Pasadena; two daughters, Susan and Connie, and one son, Bruce, all of the home; his mother, Effie Cofer of Canyon, and two sisters, Mrs. Harrison of Canyon and Mrs. Edward Read of Ft. Morgan, Colorado.

"I Hold the Key" by J. A. Hill is good for all who can read. Available at all Canyon bookstores.

Weapons Given To P-P Museum

Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum has received two large weapons from Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hunter of Amarillo.

The weapons are a bazooka gun and a 20 millimeter pvkan anti-tank gun.

"The anti-tank gun was Swiss-made for the Germans to use during the war," said museum director Boone McClure.

Guns will be placed on top of the showcase displaying numerous smaller guns located in the second large room of the museum.

Next Week Scheduled For "The Easy Life"

"The Easy Life" opens Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 21-22, for Community Film Series viewing at the Olympic Theatre.

Features will be shown at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. Individual admission tickets are on sale at $1 each at the theatre box office.

"The Easy Life" is an Italian film of 1963. Direction is by Dino Risi.

Members of the cast include Vittorio Gassman as Bruno, Jean Louis Trintignant as Roberto and Catherine Spaak as the daughter.

An older man (Vittorio Gassman) offers to show a younger one the "easy life".

Filmed in Rome at the height of Italy's summer vacation period, the adventure begins with a deserted street and the roar of a sports car.

Fate soon causes a meeting between the sports car driver (Gassman) and Roberto (Jean Louis Trintignant). The two exchange favors, become friends, and soon are sharing a long and wild ride about Rome and through Italy.

Roberto, a younger man, begins to admire Bruno and his aimless self-assurance, and patterns himself after it. Two fast-paced days are filled with the wild, fun-loving sensations of the "easy life" before tragedy ends the merry-making. Roberto's ideals, memories, purpose for living have been destroyed. And Bruno is suddenly made aware of the emptiness of his own existence.

"The Easy Life", an Embassy Pictures release, runs for 105 minutes.

Next on the Community Film Series schedule is an American film, "The Trial", to be shown Nov. 4 and 5.

Tom Lair, Canyon High School quarterback, launches a long bomb aimed for touchdown territory in Friday night's 26-0 whitewashing of Olton. The Eagles scored all touchdowns in second half play, once again excelling in defensive work. Eagle touchdowns were set up by a recovered fumble by Randy Buttrill, Gary McAtee's pass interception and a faltering Olton fourth down pass which handed Canyon the ball on downs.

WAC Team Program Scheduled At WTSU

The "travelingest WAC's in the Army" will appear in Canyon Oct. 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the Branding Iron Theatre at WTSU.

Five members of the Women's Army Corps will present the program.

They will be in the Canyon-Amarillo area with a special exhibit, "Serving With Pride and Dignity", which will be displayed in the Sunset Center Mall in Amarillo, October 27-31.

During the past year and a half, the WAC quintette has accompanied the exhibit more than 30,000 miles for public showings from coast to coast--telling their story to more than 40 million people.

Both the exhibit and the special program are aimed toward promoting a better understanding of women in the military, thus strengthening the defense and future of our country.

The exhibit includes historical photos, back-lighted color transparencies and color slides, plus a 14-minute color movie that tells the story of modern WACs both on and off duty around the world.

The movie, "With Pride and Dignity", was filmed in and around Washington, D. C. The cast includes more than 175 WACs from the Washington-Baltimore area. A team of these young Army women will be with the exhibit as hostesses during its showing in Amarillo.

"Serving With Pride and Dignity" was produced by the Office, Chief of Information, Department of the Army. It will be open to the public without charge throughout its five-day Amarillo showing.

Running for that hard-to-find goal line is Randy Buttrill, Canyon Eagle halfback, as he tries to escape an Olton tackler in Friday night battle. The Canyon-Olton game ended 26-0 with the Eagles grabbing their second victory of the '64 season. Other Eagles pictured include Stephen Hines (74), David Rossi (73), Al Sternenberg (81) and Sherman Smith (25). Canyon faces a difficult conference opener next weekend, Oct. 23, as they host Hereford in Buffalo Bowl. The Eagles will be stepping with care into the first year of 1-AAA competition. Other District schools include Dumas, Perryton, Muleshoe and Tulia.

Alumni Plan Homecoming Ball Friday

West Texas State University Alumni are invited to the Homecoming Ball at Amarillo Country Club Friday.

The semi-formal dance begins at 9 p.m. with visitation to start at 8:30 p.m.

Music will be sponsored by the Snoz Dunn Orchestra.

Tickets may be obtained at the dance and are $2.50 per person.

Featured will be the honored reunion classes for WT Homecoming, including the Silver Anniversary classes of 1939 and classes of 1937-41, 1947-51 and 1957-61.

The dance is the third annual alumni dance.

Eagles Blast Olton In Upset Win Friday

BY LYNZA CARADINE

Canyon 's sky-high Eagles set Olton's gridiron ablaze as they soared to a 26-0 win Friday night in non-conference play.

Underdog Canyon picked up only 162 total yards rushing to Olton's 209, but snatched the big plays when they counted in a free-wheeling second half.

Pure grind-it-out action dominated the first half of play when the Eagles controlled the ball for only five series of downs and 22 plays.

A spark of life began to show in the Canyon High unit as time ran out in the second quarter. Olton pushed a drive from their own 20 yard line to the Canyon 5 where it was first down and goal to go.

The Eagles tightened ranks, allowing Olton to get to the one-foot marker and no further, taking over on downs and running the time out with just one play.

Back to play in the second half, Canyon received the kickoff but had to kick on fourth down. Olton took possession and marched for a first before alert Joe Kerbel snagged Olton quarterback Joe Priests's pass at the 35. Two plays later Priest intercepted Tom Lair's pass and the Mustangs took over.

Mustang possession came to an abrupt end at their own 15-yard marker when Eagle halfback Gary McAtee saw a second interception opportunity, juggled the Olton pass but hung onto the ball with his fingertips and scrambled downfield to score.

Wayne Colling's kick went off to the side, so Canyon's lead was 6-0 with 5:44 left in third quarter.

Back on the defensive, Canyon's wide-awake ball club capitalized on a second Olton bobble to set up touchdown two. Priest fumbled the ball on second down and Randy Buttrill pounced on it at the Canyon 49.

Quarterback Lair sailed a long missile good to halfback Wayne Brewer who was almost loose but finally grounded at the Olton 5. Tommy Sanford powered to the 3, and Joe Moore got to the 1 before Lair plowed over on a keeper.

Colling booted the extra. The Eagles were 13-Olton 0, time reading 3:14.

The Mustangs came back with determination but 9 plays later gave Canyon the ball on downs. The Eagles had some problems and with fourth down and 9 to go, Dennis Haley punted to Olton's 23.

At that point began another Mustang march which could have been fatal except for Eagle defensive play led by Joe Kerbel and a faulty pass-catching attempt by Olton back Jerry LaFrance.

On the move again, the Eagles blazed from the 49 to the 3-yard line on the running of Sanford, Brewer , Haley and Moore. Moore did the scoring honors from the 3 and Red Parker kicked for a 20-0 Eagle lead with 2:45 left in the game.

Ironically enough for Olton, final Eagle points came on the final play of the game. Olton again gave Canyon the ball on downs at the Canyon 40. Brewer got to the 50 for a first down and Moore carried next for no gain.

Then Buttrill took the ball, dashed to the right side of the line, reversed field to the left and sped goalward for a 50-yard tally. Lair's two-point pass to George Cox failed but time was gone and Canyon sported a 26-0 upset.

The victory boosted the Eagle season record to 2-3 as non-district action closed. Canyon takes a time-out this weekend before heading into 1-AAA play against Hereford Oct. 23.

The Eagle-Hereford game is set for 8 p.m. in Buffalo Bowl. Then Oct. 30 Canyon travels to Dumas, returning home Nov. 6 to meet Perryton.

Last Rites Conducted In Clarendon

Mrs. Fannie Boone Emmons, grandmother of Mrs. Jerry LaGrone, died Saturday in Adair Hospital in Clarendon.

Mrs. Emmons, 89, had lived in Clarendon since 1946. She moved from Decatur to Hall County in 1911 after her marriage to Will E. Emmons in July of 1906.

Mrs. Emmons was born in Cooper May 9, 1875. She was a housewife and a member of the First Methodist Church in Clarendon. Her husband died July 8, 1963.

Funeral rites were held in the First Baptist Church of Clarendon Monday at 2:30 p.m. Burial followed in the Citizens Cemetery of Clarendon.

Rev. W. R. Lawrence, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. Bob Ely, minister of the Clarendon First Methodist Church, officiated.

LaGrone Funeral Chapel of Canyon conducted the services.

Survivors include four sons, Jess of Littlefield, Jim of Spade, A. J. of Clarendon and Coy Johnson of Los Angelos California; one daughter, Mrs. Pearl Nowlin of Hot Springs, Arkansas, 15 grandchildren, including Mrs. LaGrone of Canyon, and 28 grandchildren.

Debate Group Attends Meet

Four members of Pi Kappa Delta, debate society at West Texas State University, attended a society meeting in Edmond, Oklahoma last week.

Gene Lewis and Earl Fort accompanied the group on the two-day meet Friday and Saturday.

Attending from Canyon were Donna Humphreys, P. K. Hadley, Cathy Brannon and Mary Lemmond.

The debate team at WT will travel to Lubbock Oct. 30-31 for a series of debates with the Texas Tech team.

Past College Boxing Champ Now Canyon Businessman

Mr. and Mrs. Don York relax and chat in the living room area of La Casa Canyon Convalescent Home in Canyon. The couple owns the home located in the southeast part of town. York has had an active life serving at one time in the Mexican Army and another time as the boxing champion at Texas A&M.

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

"I never missed any meals, I just postponed a few."

The man sat behind his desk in his small office talking about the past with nostalgic humor.

He has been an independent individual since his early school years in Nebraska, and he knows the hardships that grow out of trying to make your own living at a young age.

Don York, a new businessman in Canyon, has many tales to relate concerning his business ventures, which often carried more adventure than the usual 8-to-5 routine.

Don, owner of the La Casa Canyon Convalescent Home, began his roaming life at the age of 11 years.

He moved from Plattsmouth, Nebraska, where he had been born, to Harlington, Texas to complete his schooling.

"I went to Harlington in 1922 when the Rio Grande Valley was wild and wooley," York recalled.

In 1929 the adventurous boy graduated from high school and looked around for a job that would house his energies and abilities.

"I signed on with the Morgan Engineering Company in Daytona, Ohio, but my job was along the border of Mexico. We worked on both sides of the border, and in those days it was rather dangerous," York reminisced.

"He had contracts in Mexico.. in the wild part of Mexico at that. We were armed because of necessity. In those days we had to bear arms.

"But it was a law in Mexico that foreigners could not carry firearms.

"To get around the law, the Mexican government enlisted us all in the Mexican Army. Our rank depended on the salary we were making at the time.

"My salary ranked me as a one-star general," York laughingly recalled.

But the general title didn't remain long with York.

"The depression hit Mexico and everyone went broke. They didn't have FDR so they just sat down and ate beans and cornbread. Today they are in better shape than we are," York pointed out.

The young man had saved money during his work in Mexico and decided to attend Texas A&M in College Station.

"I majored in civil engineering, and I never have used it," the one-time general commented.

While at A&M, York won the title of boxing champion at the school. He recalled one time when he boxed an exhibition match against the then world's heavyweight champion Max Baer.

"Max Baer came to A&M to put on an exhibition match. I was the school champion, so I was to box him.

"I remember he talked to me before the match and asked me if I wanted to do this thing straight or have a good time. I knew enough that I would get hurt if I tried to box him seriously.

"So we agreed to put on a good show. I have never had such a good time. He was really a good showman. I could barely keep a straight fact during the whole thing.

"He traveled over the country doing this sort of thing, and he was really good at putting on a show," York recalled.

Following graduation in 1934, York began work in a chain merchandise store. He married "Irish", his wife, the same year in Austin and together the couple have moved into 42 different towns.

"We moved everywhere. We lived in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and back to Texas. Finally we settled in Borger and when the company wanted me to move, Irish and I decided to stay," York said.

"I opened a small variety store in Borger and then enlarged it into a drug business.

"After 10 years in the drug business, the store burned," he continued.

"We had been in business in Borger 11 years when the fire wiped us out. We had been open every day including July 4, Christmas Day, Thanksgiving, New Years, every day. And I was there every one of those days.

"After the fire, I realized I was tired of the retail business and we decided to travel.

"So we took off and spent several months in Alaska, just sightseeing," he said.

In the fall of 1963, Mr. and Mrs. York took a serious step in business in Canyon. They built and now operate a convalescent home in the southeastern section of town.

"This is one of the greatest challenges I have ever had," York said about his new business.

From a youngster who looked for adventure in the wilds of Mexico to a man who is adding a needed service to Canyon, Don York will never be able to say his life lacked adventure.

Parade Plans Readied By Chairman Carruth

Preparations for the 1964 Homecoming Parade at West Texas State University began last spring for Dr. T. Paige Carruth.

Carruth, dean of men at WTSU, is chairman of the parade committee.

According to Carruth, the first move necessary in planning the parade was for the Student Senate to determine the parade theme. Chosen was "Texas Myths and Legends".

Work actually began on parade planning when school opened this September.

"When school opened, our first move was to work with city officials in determining the parade route," said Carruth.

The parade route was altered somewhat from last year's because of a recent city ordinance. The parade will assemble at the west end of Fourth Avenue and will proceed eastward down Fourth Avenue to campus, turning to the north at 24th Street.

"Our next step was to contact various organizations participating in the parade, including out-of-town bands and riding clubs," said Carruth.

Riding clubs participating will be Plainview, Will Rogers Range Riders of Amarillo, Randall County Sheriff's Posse and possible Hereford.

Bands will be high school bands from Canyon, Hale Center, Tahoka and Hereford, the Amarillo Air Force Band and the West Texas State band.

Other parade entries include 13 floats, the Sam Houston Rifle Drill Team, WTSU cheerleaders and the victory bell, Homecoming Queen and attendants, and 8 cars transporting the invited dignitaries included in the President's party.

Sheriff L. S. "Slim" Johnston will serve as parade marshall and lead the parade.

Roland Black, Chamber of Commerce manager, will serve as over-all parade manager in helping get everything in place and see that the parade gets started on time.

"We are working closely with the city police and the highway patrolmen on this," said Carruth. "They are very cooperative."

Numerous other arrangements have taken place in detail-type work. Buffalo Gals service organization volunteered to decorate parade cars transporting the President's party. Alpha Delta Pi sorority girls volunteered drivers for the cars.

Earlier this semester, Roland Black; Larry Elms, student senate president; Sonny Snell, Student Union program direction; and Donna Kirk, senior senator, solicited funds from Canyon merchants to sponsor floats.

Carruth and the student senate worked together arranging a parade committee to accept float entries. The committee screened entries to make sure they were in accordance with requirements and in good taste.

Carruth secured three judges to judge the winning float, first and second honorable mention floats and the dorm decorations.

The Counter Insurgency Core at WTSU was contacted to serve as hosts for all invited out-of-town guests.

Frank Kimbrough, athletic director, cooperated with Carruth in arranging for the parade floats to be placed around Buffalo Bowl at the football game. Highway patrolmen will assist in escorting the floats to the stadium.

Dr. Jack Walker and Carruth took one of the final parade-arranging steps Friday by assigning the entries to positions to use in lining up. Parade participants should be in place by 3 p.m.

"The parade will begin promptly at 3:30 p.m.," said Carruth.

Dr. Carruth is now dean of men at West Texas State. He received BS and M.Ed. degrees at WTSU and Ed. D. at Texas Technological College.

DR. T. PAIGE CARRUTH

Miss Helen Fern Hood DN, was a recent visitor in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hood. Miss Hood recently completed an assignment at the U. S. Naval Base at Newport, R. I., and for the next two years will be assigned to the U. S. Naval Base in Hawaii. Miss Hood and her mother visited at the cabin of Hood's sister, near Taos, N.M., during her 30-day leave. They also visited various other friends and relatives. Miss Hood flew from Amarillo to Dallas, then to San Francisco, where she emplaned for her new assignment.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolon Henson hosted the TCU Farm and Ranch Group at their ranch during the past week. Included in the group were representatives from Columbia and Panama, and from Illinois, Ohio, Oklahoma, Kansas, and California.

Sunday guests in the Arvin Triplett home were Miss Sharon Ely of Amarillo and Ann Hardaway of Canyon. Other guests during the week were Quenton Ely of Amarillo, Cynthia Mickey of Tulia, Mrs. Roy Mickey, Sherman McCarter, Ron Perry and Richmond Graham, all of Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gandy of Hereford visited last Tuesday with the Earl Fort family.

Mmm Good

"Sure looks good" seems to be Head football coach Jeep Webb's main thought as the Canyon High School coaches and players help themselves to some good-smelling grub fixed for them last Thursday, Oct. 8, by the Wesley Cox's. Boys and coaches enjoyed fried chicken and all the trimmings at the Cox home. It was a fitting treat for the Eagle squad that captured its second season victory the next night in a 26-0 stomping of Olton. Makes you wonder if the chicken had anything to do with winning!

One Accident Reported Here

Only one accident was reported to Canyon police officers this week.

At 9:40 p.m. Sunday, a 1956 vehicle operated by Charles Clayborn Boyd of Petersburg, struck a parked 1963 vehicle owned by Mrs. Montie Hanks of Midland.

The accident occurred on 26th Street, 75 feet south of Second Avenue.

Approximately $75 damage was done to the Boyd automobile. The Hanks vehicle received $175 damage.

No injuries were reported, according to Ray Reynolds, investigating officer.

Colleges, Cities Met By ROTC Rifle Team

Whenever a shot is fired by a member of the West Texas State University ROTC rifle team, Canyon is represented.

Counting 4 Canyon boys as members, the rifle team shoots against teams from colleges, in the area including Texas Tech and New Mexico State, and against teams from area cities, Borger, Pampa, Perryton, Amarillo Air Force Base.

Shooting on the team from Canyon are Elo Myers, Stanley Prichard, Ronald Dwayne Sweet, and Billy Kenneth Walker.

Residents of Canyon are always welcome to come and watch the match. Sgt. Howard Bryant, NCO coach of the team, said.

"We welcome all visitors to come watch any of our matches, and also practice firings."

Boy Scout troops in Canyon also use the range during weeknights. Both troop 31 and 66 participate in use of the range.

"We supply the scouts all the ammunition, and actual instruction at the beginning of the year from an ROTC instructor," Bryant said.

Captain James M. Rapkoch is commissioned officer in charge of the team, and assisting Sgt. Bryant is Sgt. A. M. Choate.

"We have approximately 250 persons using the range each week," said Bryant. "That number includes 15 sections of ROTC students."

Other members of the team to this date, and Sgt. Bryant stressed that qualification is still continuing, are James Mitchell, Terry Bettes, Rolla Peshke, Charles Seales, Michael McCormick, Robert Ham, Ronnie Smart, Shaun Hills, Jerry Don Dunsan, John Steed, Gary Hines, Alton Lyoos, Tommy Cain, Kenneth Blake, Prichard, Walker, Sweet and Myers.

Captain Rapkoch listed the following schedule with area colleges:

17 Oct.	Panhandle A&M-Canyon.
24 Oct.	Trinity University - Canyon.
7 Nov.	Texas Tech-Lubbock.
14 Nov.	New Mexico State-Las Cruces.
5-6 Dec.	Fourth Army Conference - El Paso.
11-13 Dec.	Oklahoma State U. - Stillwater.
13 Feb.	Amarillo High School - Canyon.
5-7 March	Southwest Invitational - El Paso
20 Mar.	Panhandle A & M Goodwell.
2 April	Texas Tech - Canyon.

The rifle team also fires in the High Plains League, small-bore indoor classification.

The WT team will meet Pampa "C" at Pampa Oct. 29, Nov. 10, the Amarillo Air Force Base team will journey to Canyon for a match.

Adobe Walls Blue team of Borger will host the WTSU team Nov. 19, with Pampa "A" coming to Canyon Dec. 8.

Dec. 17 will find WT shooting against Adobe Walls Gold in Borger.

WT's team will meet Perryton at Pampa, Jan. 7, 1965, with the Amarillo AFB team again coming to Canyon Feb. 2.

Perryton will meet WT at Pampa again Feb. 11, and WT will meet Adobe Walls Blue at WT, Feb. 18.

Pampa's "A" team will fire against WT at Pampa Feb. 23, with firings against Pampa "C" scheduled for March 11, also at Pampa.

The final contest of the season against municipal opposition will be held March 16 with WT meeting Adobe Walls Gold at WT.

HS Students Attend Science Symposium

Some 350 high school students attended the one-day Atomic Energy Symposium at West Texas State University Saturday.

Highlighting the symposium were talks from five outstanding scientists, including Dr. H. C. Thomas, chairman, department of physics, Texas Technological College; Ralph Tuckfield, experimental physicist, General Atomic Davision, General Dynamics Corporation; Dr. R. E. Wainerdi, associate dean of engineering, Texas A&M University; Dr. A. A. Kraus, Jr., project director in physical sciences, West Texas State University; and Dr. J. R. Bradford, dean of engineering, Texas Technological College.

Sponsoring the symposium was the Southwestern Public Service Company.

"One of the most interesting sessions was by Dr. Wainerdi," said Kraus, who was also a featured speaker.

"Dr. Wainerdi spoke on the examination of human hair using radiation to identify people and to tell to some extent what has been eaten by a person. This can be used in a type of crime detection. There was a crime conviction in Canada recently based on this," said Kraus.

According to Kraus, this is the first year for the science symposium to be featured at various schools. "It is usually held in Austin for three days," said Kraus.

This year Science Symposium sessions were held at Amarillo Junior College and WTSU and will be held at Texas Technological College this weekend.

Ready, Aim...

Sgt. Howard Bryant, NCO coach of the WT Reserve Officer's Training Corps rifle team, watches Stanley Prichard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Prichard of Canyon, as he prepares to fire. Stanley is a freshman member of the team and joins three other members of the team from Canyon. The rifle team represents both Canyon and West Texas State in its matches with area colleges and cities.

Class Reunions Scheduled At University Homecoming

Homecoming Day is the Silver Anniversary for the class of 1939 at West Texas State University.

Members of the class were mailed special invitations earlier this month.

Class of '39 begins the celebration Friday at the semi-formal Homecoming Ball to begin at 9 p.m. at Amarillo Country Club.

Reunion activities continue Saturday morning with coffee from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. in the Formal Lounge of the Fine Arts Building.

A class program is slated from 10:15-12:30 p.m. in the Branding Iron Theatre.

Silver Anniversary Luncheon is set at 12:30 p.m. in the Inner Room of the Student Union Cafeteria.

Members of the class will then join in the general Homecoming celebration, including attending the parade, barbecue, football game and after game dance.

Sixteen actual class reunions are scheduled during the Homecoming period, including the Silver Anniversary reunion.

Other class groups taking part in activities are those of 1937-41, 1947-51, and 1957-61.

Saturday class reunions will be held from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. The 1937-41 group meets in Cousins Hall Ballroom. Classes of 1947-51 meets in Formal Lounge of the Student Union Building. The 1957-61 class members meet at McCaslin Hall Ballroom.

Designers Visit

A group of some 49 interior decorators toured St. Ann's Catholic Church and the West Texas State University art department Saturday during a three-day trip through the Panhandle and New Mexico. Shown viewing the recently completed church east of Canyon are S. Forrest Winn of Dallas, William A. Brannon, president of the interior designers guild of Dallas, Charles Detten, art instructor at WT, Mrs. F.C. Goyne, decorator of Amarillo, and Mrs. Virginia Self of Dallas. From Canyon the group toured Amarillo and Taos, New Mexico.

Cowboys' Rope Ready For Mustangs Friday

Happy Cowboys hope to lasso and break the Bovina Mustangs this Friday night in Cowboy Corral.

Happy looks to Bovina for a revenge victory after the Mustangs bucked the Cowboys in the closing seconds of last year's roundup battle, 18-14.

The Friday night tilt will be the second district game for both clubs this fall.

Bovina skunked highly-rated Texline last week, 26-0. Happy stomped Lazbuddie 32-6 in their opening district bout.

Bovina has a season record of 3-2 after an upset win over Meadows two weeks ago. They have lost to Farwell, Springlake and Amherst.

Happy has a 3-1-1 record thus far. Happy tied Turkey in the opening game Sept. 11 in Turkey but came back the next week to down Lefors. Silverton also fell to the Cowboys, but Kress dropped the Cowboys Oct. 2 in Happy.

In other district play last week end, Nazareth rolled past Hart 24-6, giving the Swifts a 3-0 season. Vega played Lefors and won 32-6 in a non-district battle.

Ricky Mantooth, Happy head coach, said Bovina will have a starting fullback and quarterback in play this week. Both boys have been limited in action due to injuries.

"They are going to be tough. They have steadily gained strength each week and they will look good against us," Mantooth pointed out.

The Mustangs had a 5-5 season last year as compared to the Happy 3-7 record.

Injuries for the Cowboys has been limited. Gary Via, who was injured Friday, will see action at his guard position. Richard Todd is suffering from a sore foot, but will probably be ready for Friday night's action.

Happy will travel to Vega for the third district game Oct. 23 and will meet Texline in Happy the following week. Nov. 6 will be an open date for the Cowboys before they take on Hart in Hart and Nazareth in the Swifts territory.

George Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cox, is shown with a lamb which he will show at the Texas State Fair next week. Another Future Farmer of American from Canyon High School, Don Denny, will show a steer during the week-long fair. Cox will show three lambs Wednesday and Denny will show his steer Wednesday.
